Opening Ahead

With the aid of experienced mechanics, we are remodeling our store, decorating it with rich paper and graining and providing extra shelf room for our new goods which are constantly arriving. Next week we shall tell you more about them through the columns of the Market Guide. We are determined to stand in the front rank in the Grocery trade.

The Banner-News has got up a subscription for Louis Braille, who has saved 5 lives—good move.

Irish Jack gives meals at Grand Central Hotel for 25c.

Residents East Front. Eberts' Block should be furnished with a temporary plank sidewalk for the winter.

At Grand Central Hotel you can get a meal for 25c.

Something else we wanted to say about the City Engineer, but it has slipped our memory. We forget whether it was for or against him.

John H. Oldershaw, a few doors West of First Presbyterian Church, is expecting daily a carload of Amherstburg lime-stone for the Taylor Mills for buttress caps, sizes ranging from 2 to 4 feet and 12 to 18 inches thick, which will serve the architect's designs admirably.

In the Banner-News article on refugees collected by the brave colored man, it is stated that he "dove." As some of its readers would take the reference to include the mourning warblers who fly among the pine trees of Victoria Park, we may explain that "dove" is Chicago English for "dived."
