It has been remarked that an unusual number of pretty brides have left Bridgetown this year to make their homes elsewhere. Nevertheless, Bridgetown is still entitled to its prestige as the home of many pretty girls.

The marriage is announced of Miss Mary Francis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nugent, of St. John, to one time residents of Bridgetown, to Mr. Allan M. Gilchrist, to take place on November 15th, at Holy Trinity church, St. John.

The bodies were placed in two graves. A public funeral service was held at the Presbyterian church and was largely attended.

The committee on street lights are now empowered by the Council to engage the services of the Public Utility Board to adjust the matter of rates between the Electric Light Co., and the town. This move we understand will be conformable with the wishes of the manager of the company. The citizens will be rejoiced to know there is "light ahead."

Although the services of the firemen were not required when they reached the scene of the recent alarm of fire in the Methodist church, the church steward informs the Monitor-Sentinel that considerable damage was done, the lathing back of the severed pipe having caught fire. It was put out with buckets of water before the firemen arrived but had not time to assist them at hand, the damage would have been great.

"I appreciate your valuable paper the Monitor-Sentinel, very highly, and find it more newsy each year," says a subscriber in sending his annual remittance for subscription. "I consider it a luxury, as it is the only medium which keeps me in touch with my native land, of which I am very proud." The writer is a Blue-nose, who has left his native home to become a successful and prosperous business man in the city of Philadelphia.

The Rev. G. W. H. Troop, son of Rev. Osborne Troop, a devoted Episcopal minister in Montreal, has been deposed from the office of the ministry by the Bishop of Washington. Mr. Troop requested the Bishop to depose him, as he had ceased to hold the doctrines of the Church of England, and is now a Unitarian. Young Mr. Troop, as well as the father, who is a native of Bridgetown, will be remembered as officiating for some time in St. Paul's, Halifax.

The Kentville Advertiser says:—The Kentville branch of the S. P. C. has been doing quiet but effective work in the County for a few years. The work accomplished is noticeable now particularly in Kentville where horses not fit for working, or driving are kept from the streets. In winter horses are not allowed to remain hitched without proper attention. Many cases of cruelty to children and beasts have been dealt with and a warning has been sufficient in most cases to remedy any complaint of cruelty which has been brought to the attention of the Society from any part of the country. To carry on this good work funds are needed and the Auxiliary of the Society will hold a Farmer's Supper on Saturday night.

LOCAL AND SPECIAL.

The ground was white with snow on Saturday last.

This is fine enough for Indian Summer, but is a little ahead of the usual date.

A snow storm the latter part of last week interfered with navigation along the St. Lawrence River.

An advertisement is to a merchant very much what sowing seed is to a farmer. It may take a little time for results to become apparent, but they are sure to come. The wise farmer is not niggardly with his seed nor the wise merchant with his advertisement.

Annapolis, Shelburne and Halifax were shown to be the banner counties in Sunday School work in the late convention held at Halifax, and their names were inscribed on a banner hung in the middle of Brunswick Street Methodist church, where the meetings were held.

The Hallow E'en Supper given by the ladies of the Baptist church on Monday night was a very successful affair. The supper room in the second story was so filled at one time that the floor gave away slightly. There was a little alarm felt at the time, but no serious damage was done. The sum of $90.00 was realized.

The boat house of Mr. W. M. Romanus, of Bear River, was floated down the river by Mr. W. A. Chute, the expert building mover, in first class style the other day. The boat house contained Mr. W. M. Romanus' speedy motor yacht one of the finest of the Digby Basin fleet. The house and boat weighed about 25 tons and the moving was done by Mr. Chute, as usual, without a hitch.

Halifax Board of Trade has a project to bring the C. P. R. here on its own rails—on a roadbed of its own. The plan was outlined by President J. A. Johnson in his quarterly address. In short the proposal is that the city of Halifax, the municipalities through which the proposed road would pass, and the provincial government shall unite with the C. P. R. itself to build a road, independent of the I.C.R., from Halifax to the New Brunswick border and thence to join the main line of the C. P. R. either at St. John or some other point.

MORE SHEEP AND POULTRY DESTROYED AND BY WORTHLESS CURS.

(Middleton Outlook)

We have frequently had occasion to refer of late to the ravages of dogs. Recently Mr. Geo. Baltzer, of the Spa Springs, had a number of sheep killed and torn by vicious curs. A few nights ago Mr. Cecil Phinney's entire flock of 17 ducks was destroyed by dogs.

On Monday night Mr. J. H. Charlton's flock of lambs on the Pineo meadow was attacked. Two dogs were noticed chasing the sheep early Tuesday morning. An investigation showed that the flock had been chased and worried by the dogs for some time. Three sheep were dead, nine badly torn and bitten, several driven across the river and three or four which were missing were probably carried down the stream.

As it is evident that some of the owners of dogs in this vicinity have little regard for the rights of others, it is not time that some action was taken to rid the town of the dog curse?

WHILE MOOSE HUNTING JOSEPH MILLER, OF GEORGETOWN, HANTS COUNTY, MET WITH BAD ACCIDENT

A bullet intended for a moose passed through the body of Joseph Miller in the forest near his home, Georgetown, Hants County, last Saturday.

In company with several others, Mr. Miller was out moose hunting. It would seem that one of the members of the party were attempting to shoot over Miller's right shoulder, when instead the bullet passed through his body near the shoulder blade, came out at the right breast and entered another man in front of Miller. The injured man was gotten out of the woods as speedily as possible and medical aid summoned from Truro and Maitland. It is expected Miller will recover.—Truro Sun.

COUNTY COURT

County Court opened here yesterday morning, Judge Pelton presiding. There were two cases before the court, these being appeal cases from the decision of local magistrates.

The first case was North vs. Martin and was an appeal from the decision of Justice Legge. The cause argued was whether the defendant should be compelled to pay for a cow bought from the plaintiff, which after a payment on account of fifteen dollars was paid was killed and found to be tuberculous. Justice Legge's decision was in favor of the plaintiff and ordered that the cow should be paid for. W. E. Roscoe argued in the affirmative, A. L. Davidson negative. Decision was reserved.

The second case was an appeal from the decision of Justice Messenger in the case of Chipman vs. Durland which was a case under the Collection Act, Miller for appellant defendant and Miller for respondent plaintiff. Decision was also reserved and the court adjourned.

THE STORM IN ANTIGONISH

Antigonish, Oct. 26.—Last night's violent rain storm, which is now claimed the most severe ever experienced in this country, has left much destruction behind it. On the railway from Vinten's Mills to Mulgrave there are five large washouts, most of them over two hundred feet long. From Antigonish to Vinten's Mills, a distance of two miles, there were seven washouts. These were caused by the overflowing of the Clydesdale river, which runs close to the railway. One of the sluices is especially large, being over two hundred feet in length. The others are smaller, ranging from one hundred to ten feet long. All trains were cancelled today. Although a large number of men are repairing the roadbed all along the line it is doubtful if traffic will be resumed tomorrow. The Clydesdale also carried destruction to three hundred yards of the Grand road, which is now impassable. At the east end of the town the streets were badly washed out.

NAVAL SHIPPERS FOR HALIFAX

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Major General Sir George French says that the greatest mistake in the world would be made by locating naval shipyards at Lewis or any other which is frozen in several months of the year.

Halifax, the General adds, is the proper place for such a plant, where they would be under the forts, and where they can be reached from sea twelve months in the year.

Sir George will be remembered as having come to Canada during the Trent affair, and afterwards organized the various artillery camps, and later on the Northwest Mounted Police. He returned from Vancouver today and will sail for London tomorrow.
