

PS 445
T.C. = 258

THE NEW SABBATH LIBRARY.

PRICE, 5 CENTS PER COPY, POSTPAID TO ANY ADDRESS.

To meet the growing demand for pure literature at popular prices, we began in April, 1898, the issue of a publication entitled the New Sabbath Library. The success of these issues has proved to be unprecedented, and they have attained an almost world-wide celebrity. Although appealing particularly to young people, they will interest all lovers of good and wholesome literature, whether young or old.

Each issue of the New Sabbath Library contains a complete story, most of them written expressly for us and copyrighted. The books are of uniform style and size (6¼ x 8½), each containing 96 large pages.

A Devotee and a Darling

BY BECCA MIDDLETON SAMPSON.

Fannie, an impulsive girl of sixteen, becomes devotedly attached to church work and to the study of her Bible. She is severely tried at home, and at last, in a manner both strange and startling, her eyes are opened to see her own mistaken life.

The Wrestler of Philippi

BY FANNIE E. NEWBERRY.

A tale of the times of the early followers of Jesus, and how they lived the Christ-life in the first century. This book portrays the times of the early Church.

Its Oriental setting, description of quaint customs, etc., give it a peculiar interest and attractiveness.

Titus: a Comrade of the Cross

BY FLORENCE M. KINGSLEY.

The publishers of this book, desiring to secure a life of Christ of superior merit, offered a prize of $1,000 for the best manuscript submitted. The committee decided in favor of "TITUS." It was an immediate success, over one million copies having been sold.

Out of the Triangle

BY MARY E. BAMPFORD.

This is a story of the days of persecution of Christians under the Emperor Septimius Severus. The scene is mainly laid in Alexandria and the Libyan Desert. The book relates the narrow escapes of an Egyptian lad who has become a Christian.

The Days of Mohammed

BY ANNA MAY WILSON.

Yusuf, a Persian of the fire-worshiping sect, has revolted against his religion, and decides to leave Persia in search of Truth. In his travels he meets that strangest character of ancient or mediæval times, Mohammed. The scene is confined almost entirely to Arabia.

CHONITA

BY ANNIE MARIA BARNES.

The gifted author of this book has here produced a vivid story of the Mexican Mines. It first appeared in the YOUNG PEOPLE'S WEEKLY, and its publication in book form is in response to numerous requests from its many thousands of delighted readers.

The Prince of the House of David

BY REV. J. H. INGRAHAM.

The fame of this book has been long established, and its fascination has held sway over multitudes of delighted readers. The scene is laid in Jerusalem, during the most stirring period of earth's history. This edition has been revised and in parts rewritten.

A Star in a Prison

A TALE OF CANADA.

BY ANNA MAY WILSON.

The central figure of the story is a young man who, being placed in the penitentiary on circumstantial evidence, there learns to understand the spirit of Christ's self-giving, and is finally set free.

Ten Nights in a Bar-Room

BY T. S. ARTHUR.

New and complete edition of this famous work, which has acquired a world-wide reputation as the most thrilling and powerfully written temperance story ever produced. The book comprises 96 large pages, with illustrations. Printed from new type on good paper.

Intra Muros; a Dream of Heaven

BY MRS. REBECCA R. SPRINGER.

Author of "Beechwood," "Self," "Songs by the Sea," "Leon," etc. An entertaining book, calculated to make heaven seem nearer and more real to us, and death far less gloomy. This remarkable work will bring comfort and consolation to the heart of every reader.

A Double Story

BY GEORGE MACDONALD.

This beautiful and fascinating story is one of the most popular ever written by the great author who won the title of "A Lover of Children." It is here presented in a more attractive form than ever before. Mr. MacDonald's writings are filled with helpful lessons.

The Young Ditch Rider

BY JOHN H. WHITSON.

The author writes after a protracted experience in the West. The Young Ditch Rider forms a rare picture, and the portrayal of scenes and events is a fascinating one. In this book is also printed Mr. Whitson's later story, "In the Land of the Mirage."

(CONTINUED ON THIRD PAGE COVER)