

You now have our assurance, — we feel that you do not ask for more than this — that for the Spring and Summer of 1896 we will show you about our usual time, a full range of Dress goods, particularly in Lashes, Mohairs, Orilliantines, Sicilians, all the bright Effects in Blacks and Colours, also novelties in high class dress goods, many of them not to be had elsewhere.

Our space here will not permit of our enumerating every line, but we promise you that in each department the ranges we carry will be complete.

In prices you will reap the benefit of our early buying.

In confirmation of this we ask you to go carefully through those lines of Spring goods which our Travelers who are now out on the "Sorting Trip" have with them.

It will repay you to do so. — With renewed thanks for your support in the past and the assurance of our continued personal attention to your commands in the future.

We are
Sincerely yours

Prophy Caine & Co.
