Sparkles.

THE custodian of what had been Garibaldi's straw-stuffed bed in Ischia was heard to mutter, on seeing a lady carry away a few straws as a relic, "They will do it! I've stuffed it six times already since the General left."

DE Bible says, deah breddern, dat of ya bring up a child in de way he should go, when he's old he will not depah from it; an' I might add dat de same rule holds good, only in a stronger fashun, when ya bring him up in de way dat he shouldn't go.

GENTLEMEN,—I cannot but praise B.B.B., for it has revived me wonderfully. I was completely run down, had aching pains in my shoulders, a tired feeling in my limbs, low spirits, in fact I was in misery. Being recommended to try B.B.B. I did so, and with the use of only one bottle I am to-day strong and healthy. I prize it highly.—MRS. B. TUCKER, Toronto, Ont.

Plain Dealer, Mister? All about the hoisters' strike. English Tourist (gathering data for a book on America): "Great Scott! what a country! Hoysters on a strike! Must make a note of that, don't you know."

DEAR SIRS,—My little girl last winter had a very bad cold which almost resulted in congestion of the lungs. After doctoring with her for three months without success, I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, and two bottles of it cured her. She is now strong and healthy.—MRS. SAMUEL MULHOLLAND, Hamilton, Ont.

RECTOR'S warden (to fair stranger): Always glad to welcome you to our little church, madam. Am very sorry our pastor was away to-day. You would have heard a much abler discourse. Fair stranger (smiling sadly): I have not the least doubt of that, sir; my husband himself felt that his sermon might be a disappointment to the congregation.

DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with biliousness, headache and lost appetite. I could not rest at night, and was very weak, but after using three bottles of B.B.B. my appetite is good and I am better than for years past. I would not now be without B.B.B., and am also giving it to my children.—MRS. WALTER BURNS, Maitland, N.S.

MARRIED DAUGHTER: Oh, dear! such a time as I do have with that husband of mine! I don't have a minute's peace when he's in the house. He is always calling me to help do something or other. Mother: What does he want now? Daughter: He wants me to traipse way upstairs just to thread a needle for him, so he can mend his clothes.

CHILDREN and adults are equally benefited by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, the new and successful cough remedy. It stops coughs in one night and may be relied on as an effectual remedy for colds, asthma, bronchitis and similar troubles. Price 25 and 50c. at druggists.

GENTLEMEN,—I think your valuable medicine cannot be equalled, because of the benefit I derived from it. After suffering from headache and loss of appetite for nearly three years I tried B.B.B. with great success. It gave me relief at once, and I now enjoy good health.—MRS. MATTHEW SPROUL, Dunganon, Ont.

PASSENGER: Is this ticket good to stop off? Conductor: Yes'm. But it won't be good to get on again.

"Ah, what an inspiring spectacle a railway train is!" vociferated Mr. Prozee. "So swift, so untiring—" "Untiring nothing!" exclaimed the frivolous person. "I have often seen them stop completely flagged."

GENTLEMEN,—I used to be troubled with quinsy, having an attack every winter. About five years ago I tried Hagyard's Yellow Oil, applying it inside my throat with a feather. It quickly cured me and I have not since been troubled. I always keep it in the house.—MRS. J. M. LEWIS, Galley Ave., Toronto, Ont.

HUSBAND (a member of the Sportsmen's Club): I see they have arrested some men in the East for shooting birds on the wing. Wife: Serves them right. They should shoot them on the head or on the feet. You men have no idea how ugly a spoiled wing looks on a hat.
