The lectures in this year on Contracts, Criminal Law, Torts, Private International Law, Canadian Constitutional Law, and the construction and operation of the Statutes, will embrace one-half of the total number of lectures, and will be delivered by the Principal.

The lectures on Real Property, and Practice and Procedure will embrace one-fourth of the total number of lectures, and will be delivered by a lecturer.

The lecturers on Equity, Commercial Law, and Evidence, will embrace one-fourth of the total number of lectures, and will be delivered by a lecturer.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

The term lecture where used alone is intended to include discussions, recitations by, and oral examinations of, students from day to day, which exercises are designed to be prominent features of the mode of instruction.

The statutes prescribed will be included in and dealt with by the lectures on those subjects which they affect respectively.

The Moot Courts will be presided over by the Principal or the Lecturer whose series of lectures is in progress at the time in the year for which the Moot Court is held. The case to be argued will be stated by the Principal or Lecturer who is to preside, and shall be upon the subject of his lectures then in progress, and two students on each side of the case will be appointed by him to argue it, of which notice will be given at least one week before the argument. The decision of the Chairman will be pronounced at the next Moot Court.

At each lecture and Moot Court the roll will be called and the attendance of students noted, of which a record will be faithfully kept.

At the close of each term the Principal will certify to the Legal Education Committee the names of those students who appear by the record to have duly attended the lectures of that term. No student will be certified as having duly attended the lectures unless he has attended at least five-sixths of the aggregate number of lectures, and at least four-fifths of the number of lectures of each series during the term, and pertaining to his year. If any student who has failed to attend the required number of lectures satisfies the Principal that such failure has been due to illness or other good cause, the Principal will make a special report upon the matter to the Legal Education Committee. For the purpose of this provision the word "lectures" shall be taken to include Moot Courts.

Examinations will be held immediately after the close of the term upon the subjects and text books embraced in the Curriculum for that term.

Examinations will also take place in the week commencing with the first Monday in September for students who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who having presented themselves thereat, failed in whole or in part.

Students are required to complete the course and pass the examination in the first term in which they are required to attend before being permitted to enter upon the course of the next term.

Upon passing all the examinations required of him in the School, a Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk having observed the requirements of the Society's Rules in other respects, becomes entitled to be called to the Bar or admitted to practise as a Solicitor without any further examination.

The fee for attendance for each Term of the Course is the sum of $10, payable in advance to the Secretary.

Further information can be obtained either personally or by mail from the Principal, whose office is at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Ontario.
