Rev. G. M. Mittians's church, Old St.

REV. G. M. MILLIAN's church, Old St. Andrew's, Toronto, has established a mission chapel at the corner of Winchester and Sackille streets at a cost of $4,000. This step has been taken more especially for the accommodation of a section of the large number of children who have hitherto been attending the Sunday School in connection with the church. Thise of them who live in the neighbourhood if the church will attend with the church. Thise of them who live in the neighbourhood of the chapel will attend there on Sabbath afternoons instead of at Carlion and Javie as before, and will doubt-less form the nucleus of a flourishing school. Mr. J. H. Thom will superintend and Mr. A. H. McColl will do a large share of the work. Mission services will be held every Sanday and Thomas and the School Sunday and Thursday ev.nings. Last Sal-bath afternoon the dedicatory services were bild. Rev. G. M. Milligan and Rev. D. J. Macdonnell delivered addresses
