ing. They change places, the baronet acquiring a business he is adapted for and winning the affections of a girl who suits him, who the boatbuilder is translated to a sphere he adorns. The fortune, which has all along been hidden in an old trunk, is at last unearthed by the baronet, who hands it over to its rightful owner, his cousin. The story is quaint and intensely interesting.

SADDLE, SLED AND SNOWSHOE. Pioneering on the Saskatchewan in the Sixties. By John McDougall Illustrated. Cloth. Wm Briggs, Toronto.

This is one of the most entertaining books of the season. There is no attempt at exaggeration, but the incidents are all stirring, and the Northwest Indians as they were a generation ago are graphically depicted. No one who enjoys stories of pioneer life in the west, camping, voyaging and Indian adventures, etc., will lay this book down unfinished. Mr. Laughlin's sketches are bold and striking.

EVOLUTION OR CREATION. By Prof. Townsend, D. D. Cloth, $1.25. Fleming H. Revell Co., Toronto.

This is a critical review of the scientific and scriptural theories of creation and certain related subjects. It is written in a popular style and intended for people who are perplexed by the confident philosophy of modern scientists and yet feel themselves hardly qualified to express their dissent in set terms. It deals with fundamental questions in a clear, comprehensible, terse method, and the introduction is an admirable resume of modern philosophic writings. As an "informing" book without pedantry or technical mysteries of any kind, it should be highly popular.
