Chesterfield says: "Aim at perfection in everything, though in most things it is unattainable." Perfection is a comparative word, and changes as our ideas expand, and our knowledge increases. What was accepted as perfection a few years back, would not bear comparison with the artistic work now taken at

M. J. HYNES & BRO.,
Contractors and Plasterers,
HAVE REMOVED FROM 11 VICTORIA TO
102 KING STREET WEST.

BALDNESS!
Neither gasoline, vasoline, carboline, or Allen's, Ayer's, or Hall's hair restorers have produced luxuriant hair on bald heads. That great discovery is due to Mr. Wintercorbyn, 61 King-street East, (late 125 Church-street), as can be testified to by hundreds of living witnesses in this city and Province. He challenges all the so-called restorers to produce a like result.
Send for circulars.

We are not anti-Chinese, but THE FIRE-CRACKER MUST GO!

THE Lindsay Post man believes in capital punishment, and thus inflicts it on three of its political opponents, in giving a report of a recent meeting:
"Mr. A. WRIGHT was welcomed by a chorus of yowls, led off by Percy Smythe, the bray, the hectoneer, and Jimmy Lennon, with a few other choice spirits scattered over the hall."

WHEN a man and a brother who has been gathered in by the servants of the law for being a little "off" beseeches you to suppress his name in the paper, and don't beseech you to take a 3 cent glass of lager, it is time negotiations closed.—London Herald. Yes, and when a newspaper man goes around drinking three cent lager with police-court vags, it is time his boss knew about it.

A story is going the rounds about a young woman who went to Winnipeg from Ontario, and was seen, loved, proposed to, and married by a nice young man the very next day after her arrival. This probably accounts for the interest excited in the female community by the announcements of excursions to Winnipeg, and hereafter passengers on board PRETTIE'S trains bound to the North-West need no longer wonder at the crowds of respectable looking spinsters who stand on the platform gazing wistfully into the cars, like so many penniless boys at the door of a circus.

THE NEW DOMINION, 3 MONTHS ON TRIAL FOR 25 CENTS.

A large 8-page, 40-column weekly family paper. The cheapest and best serial ever yet published. Address S. FRANK WILSON, 13 Victoria St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.
