The Child and the Blessed Sacrament. A lovely girl of four years old, Of soft and sunny glance, Was leaning on her mother's couch Amid the vines of France. And the little heart within her breast

Was fluttering like a bird's And she looked into that mother's eyes, And caught her dying words.

She bade her, for her father's soul, Still to the Virgin pray, That Christ, Who for all sinners died, Would wash its stain away,

For he was one of those who knew All but the Crucified; Who by false science led astray. His blessed Lord denied. And when the mother's hour had come-

Appointed hour of death-She, in her infant's arms pressed, Gave up her fleeting breath. Then chanced it that this cherub child Must from her home depart,

And to the Sisters go, who watch Before the Sacred Heart, They told her how our Lord, in love, From us His presence hides; Yet in our Tabernacles, He

Forevermore abides; And how He guards the orphan child, And loves the orphan's tear;

Thus all that eve their teaching fell Like music on her ear. So, when the golden sun had set, She to the altar went, And to the Father of us all

The smiling cherub bent: Then to the tabernacle climbed And breathed her evening prayer, And gently tapping at the door, Said: "Jesus are you there?"

When lo! a voice replying came, Soft as her mother's kiss; Wrapping her soul in ecstacy, And sweetly answered: "Yes."

" And will You spare my father, Lord, And save his soul from ill?" Again her simple prayer was heard-"I will, my child, I will." Oh! still he loves the artless prayer.

The guileless heart is His; Those were the hearts He loved on earth-Of those His kingdom is. Ere thrice the dewy evening fell,

A prostrate form was seen Before the altar kneeling low Where that sweet child had been. He called upon the Saviour there. And as he breathed His name. Fast down the mourner's cheek The tears of sorrow came.

Such were the tears that Peter wept, Than Hybla's tears more sweet; Such were the tears that Mary shed Upon her Saviour's feet. Oh! 'tis for fuith and tears like theirs

Our guardian angel waits, Who kneel before the Lord of heaven, And watches at His gates. -Dublin Monitor.

TREATING THE WRONG DISEASE.

Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with trouble of the breast, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and to their easy-going and indifferent doctors, separate and distinct diseases. Assuming them to be such, he prescribes his pills and potions; when, in reality, all these symptoms are caused by some uterine disorder. While they are thus only able perhaps to palliate the disease for a time, they are ignorant of the cause, and encourage their practice until large bills are made, when the suffering patients are no better in the end, but probably worse for the delay, treatment, and complications made, and which a proper medicine, directed to the cause, would have entirely removed, thereby instituting health and comfort instead of prolonged misery. Exhaustion and degeneration follow the excessive use of the senses, without due intervals of rest for repair. In order to maintain the wonted energy, the force expended, whether of body or mind, must be restored. When the expenditure of brain matter and other nervous elements is continued by over-work, the early extinction of life itself may be look-ed for as the result of such degeneration. The ingredients composing Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such as constitute healthy blood reestablish sound nerves and senses, and will, consequently, not only prevent this exhaustion, but in most cases restore such as is lost.

How Seldom we see a splendid head of hair from sickness, excessive labor or neglect, thousands find their hair gradually wasting away. Burneti's Coconine will repair this waste. The Coconine is a perfect Hair Dressing-a promoter of the growth of the Hair—a preparation free from irritating matter. It has great affinity for the human skin—is rapidly absorbed and imparts lustre and strength.

McGOWAN'S DENTIFRICE.

In transferring the entire manufacture of my "DENTIFRICE" to Mr. B. E. McGale, Chemist, of this city, I may add that I have used the above in my practice for the past twenty-four years, and conscientiously recommend it as a safe, reliable and efficient clenser of the Teeth, and a preparation well calculated to arrest decay and render the Gums firm and healthy. It is perfectly free from artificial coloring matter, acids, or other substances deliterious to the Teeth or Gums,

W. B. M'GOWAN, L.D.S. The above is prepared under my direct supervision with the greatest care and accuracy, and strictly according to the original recipe of Dr. W. B. McGowan, Surgeon Dentist, of this city.
