Mercantile Summary.

"I see a new word is called for to describe railroad accidents," remarked Spencer; "the word 'telescope' is not considered appropriate." "Isn't it?" replied Timan; "then how would collide-oscope do?"—Harper's Bazar.

A CAT market has been started in Paris which has led some one to prophesy a unique market report, running thus:—Tabbies, dull; toms, buoyant; kittens, lively; Angoras, depressed; brindled, very brisk; Persians, in great demand; tortoiseshells, heavy.

MESSRS. J. HARRIS & Co., the well-known car-builders of St. John, are building an extensive addition to their car shops. When completed the shed will be 700 feet long. "At one end of the shed the lumber will go in in the rough, and from the other it will emerge as a finished car."

LAST week, says the Halifax Herald, advanced rates for deal freights prevailed, wooden ships were wanted for carrying oil, which is a desirable cargo, and the rates were 4s. 6d. per barrel. The scarcity of transport increased the demand for ships, and at present prices have reached the high rate of 75s. per standard of deals.

COMING out, "about the size of a copy book," in 1863, as stated in its recent announcement, the London Advertiser has gone on and prospered, improved and extended, till its hold in the Western peninsula of Ontario especially is deservedly strong. Under the sensible guidance of Mr. C. D. Barr, late of the Lindsay Post, as editor-in-chief, we look to see its reputation fully maintained. The 48-page paper which it has just issued, containing pictures of London persons and things, old and new, historical reminiscences, commercial statistics, &c., is worthy of a far larger—there could not well be a more live—city than London.
