

Denmark for not less than 12 months during the qualifying period prescribed in the Social Pensions Act.

2. Where the conditions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article have not been met, a pension awarded to a Canadian citizen residing in the territory of Denmark shall nonetheless continue to be payable in the territory of Canada if, during the qualifying period prescribed in the Social Pensions Act, that person has resided in the territory of Denmark for not less than ten years, of which at least five years are immediately preceding application for the pension.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the following supplements, allowances and benefits under the Social Pensions Act shall be payable to persons resident outside the territory of Denmark only according to the provisions of that Act:

- (a) pensions supplements;
- (b) wife's allowance;
- (c) marriage allowance;
- (d) personal allowance;
- (e) outside assistance allowance;
- (f) constant attendance allowance;
- (g) disability benefit.

4. For the implementation of paragraph 1 of this Article, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) where a member of the Danish Labour Market Supplementary Pension (ATP) Scheme has acquired at least one year of pension seniority, the person concerned shall be regarded as having completed a period of employment of 12 months in the territory of Denmark;
- (b) where a person establishes that he or she was employed in the territory of Denmark for any period before April 1, 1964, that period shall also be accepted;
- (c) where a person establishes that he or she was self-employed in the territory of Denmark for any period, that period shall also be accepted.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, periods of residence in the territory of Denmark prior to April 1, 1957 shall not be taken into account in the calculation of a benefit under the Social Pensions Act payable to a Canadian citizen resident outside the territory of Denmark.

ARTICLE XII

1. The provisions of paragraph 2 of Article III shall not entitle a Canadian citizen to a pension under the transitional provisions of the Danish Acts of 7 June
