

Canada

A. Business Visitors

1. A business person seeking temporary entry into Canada for purposes set forth in Schedule 1, who otherwise meets existing requirements under the Immigration Act, 1976, shall be granted entry without being required to obtain an employment authorization pursuant to subsection 19(1) of the Immigration Regulations, 1978, upon presentation of proof of United States citizenship and documentation demonstrating that the business person is engaged in one of the occupations or professions set forth in Schedule 1 and describing the purpose of entry.

2. A business person engaged in an occupation or profession other than those listed in Schedule 1 shall be granted temporary entry under the Immigration Act, 1976, without being required to obtain an employment authorization pursuant to subsection 19(1) of the Immigration Regulations, 1978, if the business person meets existing requirements for entry.

3. Canada shall not require, as a condition for temporary entry under paragraphs 1 or 2, prior approval procedures, petitions, labour certification tests, or other procedures of similar effect.

B. Traders and Investors

4. A business person seeking temporary entry into Canada to carry on substantial trade in goods or services, in a capacity that is supervisory or executive or involves essential skills, principally between Canada and the United States of America, or solely to develop and direct the operations of an enterprise in which the business person has invested, or is actively in the process of investing, a substantial amount of capital, shall be granted entry under the Immigration Act, 1976, and shall be issued an employment authorization pursuant to subsection 20(5) of the Immigration Regulations, 1978, if the business person meets existing requirements for entry.

5. Canada shall not require, as a condition for temporary entry under paragraph 4, labour certification tests or other procedures of similar effect.
