

RAE, S.F.

Dr. Saul F. Rae, the Vice-Chairman of the Delegation and Permanent Representative of Canada to the United Nations. Dr. Rae joined the Department of External Affairs in 1940 and served at posts in Algiers, Paris, and London and later with the International Supervisory and Control Commission in Vietnam. In 1956, he was appointed Minister to the Canadian Embassy in Washington. He was named Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the Office of the United Nations in Geneva in 1962 and attended numerous conferences of the United Nations and the specialized agencies. Dr. Rae then served as Ambassador to Mexico and concurrently as Ambassador to Guatemala from 1967 until June 1972 when he was named Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York.