The Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security was formally established on August 15, 1984, with the support of all parties. It reports annually to Parliament. The purpose of the Institute is to increase knowledge and understanding of issues related to international peace and security from a Canadian perspective, with particular emphasis on arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution.

- 30 -

For further information, media representatives may contact:

Media Relations Office
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874