

of restriction, the restriction of the markets of the farmers. They have remained in power upon a policy of restriction, the restriction of the proper development of Canada as a nation within the Empire. Elected upon restriction of trade, remaining to restrict the development of Canada, they propose to establish both policies by the restriction of free speech. We stand for freedom on every count of the indictment; and we have not the shadow of a shade of doubt that the people of Canada stand with us.

House divided on the motion (Mr. Hazen) for the previous question:

House divided on the motion of Mr. Borden that it be resolved:

That rule 17 of this House be amended by adding thereto the following:—

(2) Every motion heretofore debatable made upon routine proceedings, except adjournment motions and every motion standing on the order of the proceedings for the day, or for the concurrence in a report of a standing or a special committee, or for the previous question, or for the third reading of a Bill, or for the adjournment of the House when made for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance, or for the adoption, in Committee of the Whole, or of Supply, or of Ways and Means of the resolution, clause, section, preamble or title under consideration shall be debatable; but all other motions shall be decided without debate or amendment.

(3) Immediately before the Order of the Day for resuming an adjourned debate is called, or if the House be in Committee of
