

katchewan, a federal contribution, putting 1,000 young people to work accomplishing those tasks would surely be a good use of money. I think the government should have spent money on that, but as is so often the case everybody said it was a good idea but bureaucratically impossible.

We have to use this department. We have to give it enough authority to make sure that we can shake some of those bureaucratic trees so that what actually makes sense actually gets done.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is the House ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Government Orders

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Motion agreed to, bill read the third time and passed.

Mr. Cooper: Mr. Speaker, may I thank the members of the House for their co-operation. We have no further business to call at this time so I would call it six o'clock.

Mr. Gauthier: Mr. Speaker, I would like to comment on that statement. I think the government realizes today that with co-operation, understanding, and good relations the House deals quickly and efficiently with subject matters.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It being 6 p.m. this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 24(1).

The House adjourned at 5.53 p.m.
