FACTS.

1875—After having given the people of Ontario to understand if he got into power, Riel would be brought to justice, Mackenzie to conciliate his French followers shamelessly goes back on his professions and asks for an amnesty! (Votes and Proceedings, p. 52.)

(18th) 1875—Mackenzie asks Imperial Parliament to alter Confederation Act, (Sess. Pap. 45, 1876,) in defiance of resolution of House, seconded by himself, that no change should be sought without previous assent of Dominion Parliament! (Journals 1871, p. 148.) This is consistency!

Subsidizing the Speaker is Mackenzie's plan for securing the Independence of Parliament!
