

I N D E X.

A.

- AGIAK*, an interpreter, p. 133.
- Aguladock*, a leader of the Unalashkans, taken prisoner by Solovioff, 139.
- Agulok*, a dwelling-place on Unalashka, 137.
- Aischin-Gjord*, chief of the Manshurs at the beginning of the 17th century, 198.
- Aktunak*, an island to the East of Kadyak, 108.
- Akun* (one of the Fox Islands), 159.
- Akutan* (one of the Fox Islands), 159.
- Alakju*, or Alachshak, one of the most remote Eastern islands, 65. Customs of the inhabitants, 68. Animals found on that island, ib. Conjectured to be not far from the continent of America, 69.
- Alaxa* (one of the Fox Islands), 254.
- Albasin*, and the other Russian forts on the Amoor, destroyed by the Chinete, 198. The Russians taken there refuse to return from Peking, 208.
- Aleütian Isles* discovered, 21. 29. their situation and names, 24. Names of persons there, bear a surprising resemblance to those of the Greenlanders, 40. Inhabitants described, 41. 46. Account of those islands, 45. 55. The manners and customs of the inhabitants resemble those of the Fox Islands, 173. Are entirely subject to Russia, 174. Their number, 289. Specimen of the Aleütian language, 303. See Fox Islands, Ibiya, Novoditsikoff, Tjiupreff.
- Alexceff* (Feodot). See Desfneff.
- Aleyut*. See Fox Islands.
- Alloi* (a prince of the Calmucs), his superstitious regard for the memory of Yermac, 194.
- Amaganak*, a toigon of Unalashka, 143.
- America*, most probable course for discovering the nearest coast of that continent, pointed out, 27. See Islands, Delisle, Alakju, Kadyak, Fox Islands, Steller.
- Amlak*, one of the Andreanofsky Islands, 76.
- Y y Ana-