

Rules and Regulations.

1. Every student is required to present himself punctually at the opening of the term.
2. Each Instructor shall note all absences from his class exercises ; and when any student has been absent more than twice, without permission or satisfactory excuse, during any one Session, he shall be cited before the Faculty.
3. For any necessary absence during Term-time, previous permission from the Principal must be obtained.
4. During each Session the Faculty shall hold monthly meetings at which the progress and conduct of the students shall be reported.
5. A report shall be presented from time to time by the Faculty to the Council on applications for admissions, and candidates for exhibitions, etc.

Expenses.

Very comfortable board and lodging is provided at the price of $4 a week. Tuition is FREE. Expenses are therefore very light.

Opportunities for intellectual improvement and Christian fellowship and very many advantages, not attainable elsewhere, are accessible to the students.
