

	PAGE
David Porter captures Schooner George,	327
Dacres. Captain of H. B. M. Frigate Guerriere, Challenge of,	20
Account of	31
Decatur, Privateer Schooner, Desperate Engagement of, with Schooner Dominica,	173-176
Sails on Fresh Cruise,	177
Definition of War,	394
Desperate Battle fought between the American Privateer-Schooner Decatur, of Charleston, Captain Diron, and His Britannic Majesty's Schooner
Dominica, on the 5th August, 1813,	173-176
Desperate Battle between the Privateer General Armstrong, Captain Champlin, and a British Frigate,	105-107
Desperate Engagement between the Privateer Globe, Captain Richard Moon,
and two English Brigs, off Madeira,	160
Desperate Battle between the Neufchatel, Privateer, and the Boats of a British
Man-of-War, off Nantucket,	241-244
Disparity of Naval Forces of England and the United States,	36
Dominica, British Schooner, Engages the Decatur,	173
Dolphin, Privateer, Gallant Action of, with English Ship and Brig,
Sends British Ship John Hamilton into Baltimore,	96
Drontheim, in Norway,	223
Eliza Gracie and Oronoko captured,	9
Embargo by the United States Government,	5
English Press on the War,	41
Explosion of a Privateer,	125
Extract from the Log-book of the Atlas, Captain Maffet, and his Account of an Action with two British Ships, which he Captures,	79
Extract from a Baltimore Paper,	41
Extract from Log-book of Schooner Highflyer,	53
Extract from the Log-book of the Shadow,	62
Extract from Log-book of Privateer Schooner, Comet,	132
Extract from a Charleston paper with respect to the loss of the Privateer
Ino,	348
Extract from Log-book of Privateer Schooner Rossie,	84
Extract from Salem paper,	53
Extract from Log-book of Globe, Privateer,	35
Extract from a London Newspaper,	41
Eulogy on Captain John Murphy,	157
Fulcon, Letter-of-Marque Schooner, and British Cutter Hero, Combat between	37
Fifteen British Vessels captured off Jamaica, by the Lovely Cordelia, of
Charleston,	151
First British Ship captured and sent into Norfolk,	37
Fleet Sailing	109
Flying Fish. British Schooner, taken by the Saucy Jack,	146
Four Privateers leave the Capes of the Delaware on the 20th of July, .
Frigates, List of, fit for Sea.	36