JOHN MCCORMACK TONIGHT.

War time and unsettled business conditions do not seem to affect in the slightest the drawing powers of John McCormack, who is to sing at Massey Hall tonight. When 6 o'clock comes there will be the same long line of rush seat purchasers waiting for the doors to open and when the concert begins, the great Irish tenor will be welcomed by the capacity house which has come to be his unfalling tribute in Toronto. McCormack and his party arrive on the New York train this morning and will be quartered at a downtown hotel. In tonight's concert the celebrated tenor will be assisted by Donald McBeath, violinist, and Edwin Schneider at the piano.

Miss Marie Dressler, the funniest woman in the world, in her greatest comedy success, entitled "A Mix-Up," written especially for her by Parker A. Hord, comes to Alexandra Theatre all next week, commencing Monday, night. Miss Dressler is said to have the funniest role of her entire career as a comedienne, in this new offering. She appears as a queen of burlesque who gets into the wrong apartment by mistake. In the new comedy Miss Dressler not only has retained all of her remarkable ability as a comedienne, but exhibits further versatility by a consistent farcical creation, which is marked by talent of the highest order. The Messrs, Shubert, under whose direction Miss Dressler is now appearing, have surrounded her with a strong company.

Next week the people of this city will have an opportunity of getting in close touch with what has been going on during the great war, when the famous moving pictures of the siege of Antwerp and famous scenes on Belgian battlefields will be shown at the Princess Theatre, afternoon and evening. These pictures were taken by Edwin F. Weigle, staff photographer of The Chicago Tribune, and they are said to be wonderful indeed. They were taken by special arrangement with the Belgian Government, whose Red Cross is to receive one-half of the sufferers thru the war in Belgium. Mr. Weigle was actually on the firing line and was the calle and Ballet offer a selection of classical dances.
