West End Basketball Team Secure Revenge for Former Defeat-Scores.

Mel Brock and his cohorts came to town from St. Catharines as scheduled, Saturday night, and the West Enders had revenge to the tune of 66-26 for the defeat put over on them last week.

The locals had the better of the play all thru. The shooting of Hamm and Farrell was without fault and Tait's defence was wonderful. The St, Catharines team put up a good exhibition of fast basketball, but be it said to their credit that as long at Manager Barber's men play the game soft be it said to their credit that as long as Manager Barber's men play the game they played Saturday night they are unbeatable. It was just such an exhibition as the ones they put up last season when they defeated the two best teams in the City of Detroit at home. For St. Catharines Mel Brock was the star, only missing one foul and getting four baskets and playing hard all the way. Following is the score:
