JAPANESE SHIPS IN CALIFORNIA BAY

U. S. Navy Department Shows Anxiety Regarding Reported Operations.

WASHINGTON, April 18. -- Com-nander Noble Irwin of the cruiser New Orleans, reported to the navy depart-ment today that he had investigated the Japanese naval activity in Turtle Bay, Lower California, and found no indications of other than salvage work on the stranded cruiser Asamacommander's report was sent by wireless to Admiral Howard, commanding the Pacific fleet, who telegraphed it to Secretary Daniels. Secretary Daniels had called upon Admiral Howard for a special report. n view of press despatches telling of the assembling of a squadron of foreign warships in Turtle Bay, of a large camp established by the Japanese ashore, and of mines laid in the harbor. The Asama has been aground in the seconded Mayiogn have placed. n the secluded Mexican haven since December, and the reports indicated that the presence of other ships aiding in getting her affoat was being made the excuse for the establishment of a permanent base of operations.
