Artisans' Dwellings.

ONE great advantage which will accrue to the employers of labour on a large scale is the fact that artisans can procure dwelling-houses at a very cheap rate. The average rental of cottages is about 5 shillings per room per month—that is, a cottage of say four rooms rents for 16 shillings per month, one of six rooms for £1 10s. stg. per month, and so on. And if artisans are industrious and saving they can become the owners of such houses after a few years. A cottage of about four rooms with a lot say one sixth to one fifth of an acre in size can be purchased for say £80, and one of, say, six rooms for, say, £100. The
