

This Day is Published,

(Neatly printed in two Volumes in Twelves.)

And sold by R. SPAVAN, at the Crown in Ivy-Lane,

ENgaging and instructive HISTORIES: With the Judicial Proceedings to which the remarkable Facts therein recorded gave Occasion. Comprehending a Variety of the most extraordinary and moving Events, of incontestible Authority. And which, as they are a bare and unaffected Relation of the Truth, unadorned with any fictitious Circumstances whatsoever, and divested (as much as is possible, in relating Cases between the Sexes.) of what may offend the chaste Reader; are particularly adapted to improve the Mind, and, with the utmost Innocence, to excite the Tender Passions.

Where may be had,

In Six Volumes Octavo, formerly sold for One Guinea, and now to be had, bound in Three Volumes, at the modern Price of Half a Guinea, being one of the cheapest and best Books of the Kind extant.

THE MUSICAL MISCELLANY; being a Collection of Choice SONGS, set to the Violin and Flute. By the most eminent Masters.

*The Man that hath no Musick in himself,
And is not mov'd with Concord of sweet Sound,
Is fit for Treasons, Stratagems, and Spoils.*
