

duſt in parliament, I have taken the liberty to addreſs to you ſome Letters upon the American war. You will receive them in print ſoon after the receipt of this. I hope and truſt in the favourable opinion of my conſtituents to believe me, when I aſſure them, that it always has been, and ever will be, my ſincere intention to execute the truſt which they have reſoſed in me, according to the beſt of my abilities, with induſtry, vigilance and fidelity.

I am,

With the greateſt reſpect and conſideration,

Gentlemen,

Your moſt obliged

And faithful humble ſervant,

D. Hartley.

LONDON,
Dec. 9, 1778.

*To the Right Worſhipful the Mayor and Corporation,
To the Worſhipful the Mayor and Corporation of the Trinity-houſe,*

A N D

*To the Worſhipful Burgeſſes
Of the Town of KINGSTON UPON HULL.*