

"And the spirit and the bride say, come. And let him that heareth say, come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely": Rev. 22.

"Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that when His glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy": 1 Peter 4. "God is able to make all grace abound toward you," even "in troublesome times," when "nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom"; and they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, and bring you before kings for my name's sake. It shall turn to you for a testimony—for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay or resist—not a hair of your head shall perish": Luke 21.

"While men's hearts are failing them for fear"—"we will not fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea. There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High. God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God shall help her, and that right early": Psa. 46.

"Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth, there shall
