DOWNVIEW. Popular Pastor Assumes New Charge—Made Host of Friends.

DOWNVIEW, July 2.—(Special.)—On the eve of his departure for another charge, Rev. Mr. Baker was presented with a magnificent solid oak roll-top desk. A short time ago Mr. Baker was presented with a handsome fur-stripe overcoat. The coat was presented by the members of the church, and the desk by the Epworth League, accompanied by an eulogistic address. Mr. Baker was a short time ago constituted pastor of the Methodist church in Downview, and has been in charge of the church since his arrival here.

Mr. Baker was a short time ago constituted pastor of the Methodist church in Downview, and has been in charge of the church since his arrival here. He was a member of the Epworth League, and was a member of the W. M. Society and gave a beautiful address on the occasion. The young ladies' Bible class also presented her with a carving set.

Baker, the church has been making progress, and the three churches—Downview, Ella, and Fairbank—are wholly free of debt. The salary of the pastor has been increased by $10, and the membership by sixty. General regret is expressed at the departure of Rev. Mr. Baker, who succeeds Rev. Mr. Dean in the pastorate of Simpson-avenue Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Scott of Standard will assume the Downview circuit.

PERMANENT SHAPELINESS

With July representing in this country the first vacation month, we have made the time opportune for men who have put off purchasing their Summer Suits.

Our TWO-PIECE SUITS are justly famed as the best made warm weather clothes in Canada.

They carry their own style and character. They retain their shapeliness no matter how light in weight the fabric.

Every purchaser has the full assurance of good value. Prices—$12, $15, $18, $20.

Two-Piece Suits, in English flannels, worsteds and serges, single and double breasted, also coats, dozens of shades of colors; coats, plaids and herringbone effects. We want you to make comparisons.

Every requirement in Men's Summer Furnishings, in Straw Hats, Macinnis, and Milan Brads and Panama Hats, at fair prices.

Higher prices and further bad news from northwest.

Cor.—Advanced sharply to-day and closed at best prices of the day. Cool weather and street cleaning had an influence. There was considerable short covering.

Outs—Advanced with other grains, and the buying was stimulated by further news from the market showing a strengthening, but in this bulge we would advise caution.
