HAMILTON NEWS

SIR WILFRID HAMILTON

The Much Heralded Visit of the Premier Brought Out Large Crowds and Fireworks.

SMALL BOY REVELLED IN NOISE

And the Entertainment Had the Valuable Assistance of the Laurier Quartet.

Hamilton, Nov. 5.—(Special).—The Liberal had their long-talked-for visit to Hamilton last night, and the small boy revelled in noise, torches and fireworks, while the faithful basked in Sir Wilfrid's sunny smile and revelled in his eloquent oratory. The local Liberals put a lot of money into the affair, but it wasn't the success it ought to have been for the expense gone to. The procession was made up principally of young people, who rode on horses or marched carrying torches and waving of Roman candles. It was long, drawn-out, but not very striking.

Went to Meet Sir Wilfrid. The members first went to the Stuart street station and met Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. William Mulock, whom they escorted thru the principal streets to the houses where they were to speak. In the Army and the Police. The Army was prettily decorated, and on the walls were notices of the visit of Sir Wilfrid, Mr. Mulock and the members of the Liberal party. One of them read, "Laurier, the True Canadian."

The Army was Crowded. The Army was seen to be anxious to see and hear the Premier, and the early part of the meeting was a continuous din, boys and girls young men having been allowed free entrance.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Sir Wilfrid, supported by Mr. Wood and the Laurier quartet made a dash for the music of "See the Conquering Hero Comes," and headed by Butler Nichol of East King street, carrying and waving a big Union Jack, "There was much cheering for the Premier."

Rever Gardiner in the Chair. Herbert P. Gardiner, editor of the Times, took the chair. His own remarks could not be heard for the noise, and Mr. Wood's remarks followed, succeeded a little better.

The Premier's Speech. Then came Sir Wilfrid, and he had to struggle against more noise for some minutes before he could be heard. He spoke for over an hour, touching on no new
