Armour has the talent guessing, as he has been both an open buyer and seller during the day, but not in any large amounts. Among the best sellers were Harris-Gates; buyers, local professionals. We regard the position of wheat as strong, but do not care to follow the bulges too closely. Wheat is still very cheap, compared with other commodities, but there is no absolute scarcity as yet. We are going into winter quarters with light tocks, and when decreases set in later on he market will respond quickly and move up to a higher level. Corn ruled lower on acreasing receipts, new No. 3 is selling round 41c to 42c. The grade should improve very much with cold, dry weather. Ye look for a good cash demand for corn, and believe May is not selling far from its rail value. Stocks are unusually smalt, oth in the country and at the centres, and we doubt if there will be much accumulation for some time. Would leave Decemerate but firm. The poor quality of recipts and good cash demand have alded tures. When the grade improves prices ill ease. Provisions were stronger, with firm hog market. Feel friendly to them soft spots.

$8.00 CORONATION TWEED OVERCOATS FOR $5.00

Coronation tweed is the fabric distinctly dating 1902. You know it by sight if not by name—the fashionable people are wearing it and have been since spring. Two tones of grey, black and white, in effect, in a small check-that's coronation tweed. A pretty cloth.

Well, we have made a deal with one of our Canadian clothing manufacturers in which he throws in 100 of these overcoats at a discount. Its the end of his season, anyway, for that matter.

Well cut, well shaped, well finished overcoats they are, too, made in snappy, crisp, modern way that our best makers are getting into after the example set by our friends on the "other side."

The Sportsman's Watch

one of the largest and richest manufacturing concerns in America, complete with vest chain, for One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents. The bill you get with each Watch is stamped "Guaranteed For One Year," by the authority of the makers. This store is back of that guarantee for your convenience and protection. To make him accurate the boy must have a genuine American lever watch. This is not a toy or a long winding freak watch. You wind it up and set the hands by means of the stem, just like the most expensive watches. It makes an ideal Christmas present, and this is your chance to buy it away below regular value. This watch is the favorite with students all over the continent. It is not clumsy. It keeps time. It costs little. Travelers and sportsmen frequently test these watches against the most expensive, and find they do not vary a minute in a week.

As a sample of the value to be obtained by writing to this store for watches, we will have ready for Wednesday several thousands of this guaranteed watch, securely packed for mailing, so that safe delivery is warranted. With each watch we send a handsome and serviceable vest chain. Send 6c for Postage.
