PHYSICALLY UNFIT.
My sight is bad and though my body's sound,
The great adventure which my soul has craved
Has been denied me; I'm by fortune bound
To live my life in peace until the day
What unkind fate has decreed that I stay
While all my friends receive the chance to die
For freedom's cause? What inconsiderate day!

Did herald in my life with one bad eye?
But, if my sight is bad my vision's not,
For I can see quite clear my future
Shall out my heart like some reluctant knife.

I see the day when my heroes return;
And like the man who gazed on
Freedom's cause? What inconsiderate day!

And was content to let the city burn,
I know they'll think I tried to stay
But I am exempt! I am exempt!

What shall my answer be to my young son,
When he asks me if I have done my bit
In the great war? What shame in years to come,
When I must say, "I'm physically unfit!"

If you call me a god damned kid
I'll sue you and you'll lose
Without a flask of booze.

Because a player of the Rosedale Golf Club of Toronto made a record by doing a hole in one single shot, he was called upon to pay for a dozen drinks and a box of cigars to celebrate the achievement. Glancing at his pocketbook after the incident, the golfer decided in future to steer clear of breaking records.

John McGraw cannot understand why baseball is to be adjourned for the duration of the war in the United States. The inability of John to understand is shown by the fact that without his weekly pay envelope will become more weakly than ever.

I never like a funny guy
Except when playing poker;
For the fun of it is big
I like to have the joker.

Light of the American League lost a game by making a miff of an easy fly ball. Another case of light that faded.

Gimlet was his non de plume.
What they called him this for
Is understood when I tell you
He was an awful bore.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP
BOWLING TOURNEY TO
BE PLAYED AUG. 26-27

A meeting of the bowling clubs of the city was held last night at the Thistle Club for the purpose of outlining arrangements for the club bowling championship of London.

President C. B. Laurs was elected chairman of the committee since the competition will be held this year at the north end club's laws.

The championship series is a two-rink competition, in which 21 ends constitute a game.

It was decided to make a draw of the six clubs for a preliminary round and to play that portion of the competition on Monday evening, August 26, and then play the semi-finals on Tuesday, August 27, at 3 p.m., with the finals in the evening at 7 o'clock. D. B. rules will govern.

The draw brought St. Matthew's Club against the Thistles, and the lowing Club against St. George's in the preliminary. The winners will be drawn the next day to play off with the Elmwoods and Asylum Club rinks.

The series is a classic locally, and brings out the very strongest rinks that the six clubs can muster. Last year the following Thistles defeated the Elmwoods in the finals:

A. J. Smith, G. H. Backus, C. B. Laurs, W. T. Douglas, N. H. Keen, A. M. Heaman, skip.
