Baseball Toronto 3-2 . Lacrosse Both Toronto . Fight Men Finish Their Training

All is quiet in the camps. The men are resting, awaiting the sound of the gong, both in the pink. The odds still have Jeffries favorite at 7 to 10. with Royals and Bisons Split Evenboth sides holding off. As the day approaches the consensus of expert opinion veers more to the white man, and it looks at this distance like hanging the ten sign on Johnson about round

Pool seeling was tried at the Toronto Driving Club's races yesterday at Dufferin Park, and proved all that was ever said of the pools. True the book in operation did the buik of the business, but owing to the newcomer the ddds were greatly improved, but not so good in any heat as the pools proyed to the winners. It is only a matter of acquaintance and you'll always pass over the books for the pools, or as for their relation in Paris that they call the parl-mutuels.

The statement that the Messrs. Puddy Bros had intended to charter a car for the Jeffries-Johnson battle was not grounded on fact, as the members of the firm state that they had no intention of engaging in such an enterprise

Note and Comment | LEAFS AND HUSTLERS DIVIDE HOLIDAY GAME

Grimshaw Knocked Out by Pitched Ball.

One of the eastern star football half-backs was a new arrival at Reno on Thursday. He is pushing a certain brand of wine. As soon as he got off the train he went over to Jim May's, where the hoboes and train-jumpers hang out. He gathered about twenty of them around him and said:

"Hey, youse, I want you to boost my wine, Here's a dollar for each of you. Go out to all the saloons and ask for it and"

"And suppose they have it." said one wise wanderer.

"Then tell 'em to make it beer," said the drummer, who is full of resources.

Toronto and Rochester divided a double-header yesterday, the Leafs winning the morning game 2 to 1, while Rochester took the afternoon exhibition by 7 to 2. Montreal and Buffalo also split even, the Roy-lites are all staking the morning game 5 to 1, and Buffalo also split even, the Roy-lites are and Buffalo also split even, the All and Buffalo also split even, the Roy-lites are and Toronto and Rochester divided a doub header yesterday, the Leafs winning

In charge of John Mackay, formerly superintendent of J. B. Hag in's Rancho del Paso stock farm, in California, the largest consignment of thorobred horses that has ever left the United States started Tuesday from New York for Buenos Ayres in the steamship Dochra. There were 148 head in the lot, ten of which were the property of J. B. Haggin, whose breeding operations are now confined to Elmendorf Stock Farm, Lexington, Ky. In the shipment are six aged stallions, young stallions, 100 yearlings, 12 year-olds and 14 broodmares and idlings. Among the stallions are ricander, Slave, Sir Humphrey and reenham. A year ago Haggin shipped to head to Buenos Ayres. A few days of same destination. The returns the recent shipments will be aiched with exceptional interest.
