PLAN TO DEAL BLOWS AT TRADE OF GERMANY

W. Woods Discusses Business
Reprisals at Empire Union
Luncheon.

LASTING PEACE SOUGHT

Sir George Foster Advocates an International Organization.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, June 9.—J. W. Woods, speaking at a luncheon given the Canadian trade delegates today by the British Empire Union, said the result of the surrex on German goods in Canada had reduced imports 70 per cent.
When it was removed by arrangement under which Germany renounced the tax upon Canadian grain and put on to penalize Canada for having given Britain a preference, German imports came back to the old level. One hopeful sign was noticed by the commissioners, namely, that large imperial quarrels were being taken out of the realm of politics and dealt with purely on their merits. We were not out for reparation or revenge after the war, he thought we could deal Germany many hard blows commercially without getting hurt in return.
Sir George Foster said the result of the war would be to bring about some force among God-fearing and liberty-loving peoples, so that the present hell of butchery and mad clot in human life should never come again.
"Consult your people before you begin butchering them and butchering yourselves." It was urged that the world should be plunged into this Gethsemane of suffering by a series of assumed to themselves rights which God never gave them.

LT. MACKENZIE KILLED SIX OTHERS WOUNDED

Lieut. Massey Reported Wounded
Second Time in Official List Issued Yesterday.

In the casualty lists issued yester- day the name of one Toronto man ap- pears as killed in action and six others who have been wounded. Lieut. G. L. B. Mackenzie, who has been killed, is a son of G. A. Mackenzie, of 46 Admiral road, and had been serving with the 3rd Battalion. He was a graduate of Upper Canada College and before en- listing was a law student in the office of Jones & Leonard.

Lieut. R. M. Massey, who is reported for the second time to be wounded, was in the Field Artillery and is a son of Chester D. Massey, of Toronto. His brother, Major Massey, is military in- structor at Niagara camp. Lance- Corp. C. B. Medley is reported wound- ed. A telegram was received by him yesterday stating that he had been admitted to the London War Hospi- tal at Epsom, suffering from a gunshot wound in the shoulder. He was enlisted with the 3rd University Co., P.P.C.L.I., and his home is 23 Danforth avenue. Seriously wounded was Pte. John Black, who left here last November with the 92nd Battalion, is in No. 18 General Hospital at Bou- logne. He lived at 36 Fody avenue. Pte. F. C. Teskey of 2 Selby street is also reported wounded. He went over- seas with the 2nd University Co. to re- inforce the Patricia's. Pte. A. W. Bryan of 6 Elmer avenue and Sergt. H. V. Gilmore, 1855 Yonge street, are also reported wounded.

THE SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

The marriage of Miss Edith May (last name withheld), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lennox, to Mr. Herbert Dou- glas Eckhardt will take place very quietly on Wednesday, the 14th inst. at 2.30 o'clock in the Church of St. Paul, Bloor street.

In spite of the wicked weather yester- day afternoon, the fête given by the Women's Auxiliary of the Irish Battalion would be accounted more than success- ful. The members of the auxiliary occupied the attention of the many guests and the clearing came in time to allow tea to be served under the tents, which dotted the lawn, the trees and flowers looking so the more beau- tiful for their bath. And the meal was really enjoyed, the dishes being all home- made and of the very best quality. Sta- tistical reports were heard on the beauty of the girls, all of whom wore the Irish national colors of the battalions. The amusements were many. A wheel of fortune brought in a prize of $100. A large sum was realized for battalion funds.

Mr. C. H. Carpenter is spending a few days in Ottawa.

Mrs. Thomas Gibson is in town from Ottawa, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Tyrrell.

Mrs. Frank Cochrane, Ottawa, is spending a week in Niagara to be near her son, Mr. Oden Cochrane.

Mrs. Edward Peggam was in town yesterday from the Ontario Hotel. She is slightly better than she was. She is the wife of the late Mr. Peggam, and Mrs. Bowley are at the Ontario Hotel. The former being attached to the hospital there.
