ALLIES DRIVE OFF GERMAN REINFORCEMENTS IN BALKANS Hon. A. E. Kemp is Sworn in as Canadian Minister of Militia

ALLIES OFFSET FOE'S GAINS IN TRANSYLVANIA

Germans Lose Ground Else- where, While Fighting Roumania.

FIRST ATTEMPT FAILS

Rapid Approach of Midwin- ter Favors Allies—Out- come Not Foreseeable.

London, Nov. 23.—"It is for Hindenburg to decide whether the gains of the German army in Roumania pay for the losses sustained on the other fronts by the withdrawal of divisions to operate there," said Major-General P.
 B. Maurice, chief director of military operations of the war office, in discussing today with an Associated Press correspondent the latest military developments.

"It is impossible and foolish to prophesy the outcome of the German campaign in Roumania," continued General Maurice, "but I can say the first efforts to cut thru by the way of Fredal Pass have been a failure. Since that time the Germans have had to go a long way around, thereby giving the Roumanians time which they need."

"The Germans have a long line of communications to defend, while the rapid approach of midwinter operates in favor of the Roumanians. I will not undertake to say whether further success by the Germans in that area might compensate for other losses. Since their venture began the French at Verdun have regained much lost ground and captured 6000 prisoners, while we gained a considerable victory on the Ancre with seven thousand prisoners, and the Italians took much ground on their front as well as 5000 prisoners.

"I have just returned from a visit to the scene of our late successes and can assure you captured everything we set out to gain, despite the official German communiques asserting that we had much greater objectives in view."

Villa Retires in Defeat After Attacking Chihuahua

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—Francisco Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 8:30 o'clock ing which he made fruitless attempts to carry Gen. Trevino's protecting forces by assault, according to reports from justice.

LIGHTING IS RESTORED AT PORT OF ST. JOHN'S

Regulations Put in Force Month Ago Have Been Suspend-

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 23.—The regulations by which lights were ordered extinguished or dimmed and the port of St. John's closed a month ago, "as precautionary measures taken against the incursions of hostile ships of war," have been suspended by Gov. Davidson. The notice of this suspension, published under the name of Arthur Mewa, deputy colonial secretary, gives no indication of the developments responsible for the return of normal conditions. During the period of restriction lighthouses were out of commission, shops were closed early or conducted behind shuttered windows, automobiles showed only faint sidelights and streets were kept dark.

FOE IN ROUMANIA TRIES OLD GAME

Von Falkenhayn Moves on Bucharest Like Von Kluck on Paris.

OPEN TO SHARP BLOW

Germans Leave Dangerous Blank Between Forces at Craiova and on Alt.

Paris, Nov. 23.—Henri Bidou, military critic of the Journal des Debats, compares the German Gen. von Falkenhayn's attack with his right wing, which resulted in the taking of Crai-ova, to Von Kluck's enveloping movement on Paris before the battle of the Marne. He points out that Von Falkenhayn's strategy was to fix the attention of the Roumanians on his central attack in the region of Kimpolung, while his right wing was rapidly and unopposedly sweeping on towards Bucharest. At the same time, Field Marshal von Arz, in Moldavidia, and von Mackensen, in Dobru-dja, were fighting battles of determination, which, however, were to be, if possible, followed up.

"While Von Falkenhayn has succeeded in getting his enveloping movement under way, he leaves a very dangerous blank between the army at Craiova and the central army, descending the Alt Valley. This blank is 100 kilometers wide and exposed to attacks by the allies. If the Germano-Bulgarian armies were closing up together as they came down to Bucharest the situation for the allies would be much more unfavorable."

Taking the two armies together, M.
 Bidou reckons that Von Falkenhayn has twenty divisions to cover a front of 500 kilometers (310 miles), which, he says, are not nearly enough if the allies can attack anywhere in mass.

GERMANY PROTESTS.

Berlin, via London, Nov. 23.—An official communication issued today, dealing with the expulsion of the ministers of the central powers from Greece, says Germany has protested most sharply to Greece and all the other neutral states, and also to France and Great Britain, against this mockery of international law, of the free right of neutral states to decide questions for themselves, and of the most elementary principle of international morality.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

WHILE the Germans have thrust their right wing a considerable distance into Roumania in an attempt to reach Bucharest, the situation has not yet become desperate for the allies, for it seems that Von Falkenhayn has dangerously stretched his front and the allies have a chance of taking advantage of this fact the same as they did when Von Kluck raced towards Paris. One point of weakness in the German armor is the 60-mile gap between their forces in the Jui Valley and at Craiova and their central army advancing in the Alt Valley, noted by French military critics, including Henry Bidou. As the Germans have been halted in the Alt Valley at last, the Roumanians may be engaged in striking home. Victory of any degree of brilliancy there would render not only nugatory the advance to Craiova, but would turn that advance into a thing of peril for the enemy.

On the Cerna, near Orsova, the Roumanian forces are being fiercely attacked by the foe. This announcement by Bucharest shows that they have not yet retired from their exposed positions owing to their loss of Craiova, but that they are still maintaining their ground.
 The expectation that the Russians will give the Roumanians timely aid apparently does not relieve them from the necessity of preparing to evacuate Orsova and points along the Danube rendered unsafe by the occupation of Craiova by Von Hindenburg. That this evacuation is being prepared for is shown by the action of the Roumanians in blowing up the railway bridge near Corabia, as well as destroying military stores. Corabia is on the Danube, about 50 miles southwest of Craiova. Since the Roumanians have extricated themselves from the Jui Valley and the trap apparently set for them by Von Falkenhayn, and have taken up their old positions, and they have held up the Germans in the Alt Valley, they may elect to

TEUTONS KEEP UP BATTERING AT ROUMANIA

Germans Launch Fierce At- tacks on Cerna, Near Orsova.

ADVANCE IN DOBRUDJA

Allies Occupy Two Villages Across Danube—Russians Arrive.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
 London, Nov. 23.—The situation in Roumania continues to create anxiety.
 The German official communication issued in Berlin tonight declares that in Wallachia, Roumania, all operations are progressing in accordance with the plans of Von Falkenhayn.

The Roumanians in an official communication received today for the first time since Sunday, admit that they have evacuated Orsova, and that they have retired westward. They assert that they have extricated their forces from the Jui Valley, where they were apparently in grave peril of being cut off. These forces form part of the Roumanian first army. These forces, they say, now occupy their old positions.

The Roumanians are still holding out on the Cerna River, northwest of Craiova and near Orsova. In this region they report that a violent action is proceeding.

Take Dobrudja Villages.

Fighting has again broken out in the Dobrudja, where the Roumanians have occupied the Villages of Tasaui and Tatarpala. It is presumed that the allies will launch another offensive in an endeavor to force back Von Mackensen below Constantza.

The Roumanians have captured positions from the Germans in the region of Dragoslavea, north of Kimpolung, and they have consolidated the ground.
 In the Alt Valley, where their forces have been retreating, infantry actions were fought in the centre and artillery bombardments raged on the left wing, but the Roumanians maintained their ground.

Russians Arrive.

The Germans report that the Russian troops on the eastern border of Transylvania, that is, the section of Roumania nearest to Russia. In Craiova, they assert, they took 800 railway cars. This is regarded here as a serious loss for the Roumanians for the cars will enable the Germans, provided that they have taken locomotives also, to shift troops about with greater rapidity than they otherwise could against the Roumanians.

It is believed here that the Roumanians are getting ready to evacuate that section of their country, west of Craiova, and extending between that town and the Danube, a strip 50 miles across. The Bulgarian official communication says that the Roumanians yesterday sank their barges in the Danube and they destroyed the bridge near Corabia, 50 miles southeast of Craiova, and they set fire to stores of ammunition.

Alliance to New Emperor Is Sworn by Austrian Troops

London, Nov. 23.—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Amsterdam quotes the following message from Vienna:
 "By order of the new emperor, the troops in all the military districts of the monarchy, and generals, other officers and military officials, have taken the oath of allegiance in the name of Emperor Charles I."

London, Nov. 23.—A royal proclamation issued today declares that hereafter gold, silver and paper money, securities, cheques, drafts, orders of credit and any negotiable instruments relating to the transfer of money, credit or securities will be treated as contraband.

NEW TAXES IN FRANCE WILL RAISE BIG SUM

Additional Revenue of Six Hun- dred Million Francs is Expected.

Paris, Nov. 23.—New taxes, which it is estimated will yield 600,000,000 francs, have been decided on by the appropriation committee of the chamber of deputies after many weeks of consideration. Among the measures will be an increase of the income tax from two to five per cent, the taxes on the yield from securities from four to five per cent, and on sugar from 25 to 40 francs per metric hundred-weight. There will also be increases in the taxes on tobacco, wines, beef, letter postage, coffee, chocolate, tea, vanilla, mineral waters, and a great variety of other articles, and also on horses, billiards and dogs.

MACEDONIA DRIVE STILL PROCEEDS

Furious Resistance of Rein- forced Germans Fails to Stop Allies.

TAKE MORE VILLAGES

Franco-Serb-Italian Forces Make Considerable March Northward.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
 London, Nov. 23.—Capture of two more villages and the driving of the Bulgarian reinforcements, sent to aid the Bulgarians, further back are reported in official communications on events in Macedonia, north of Salonica today.
 The Serbians fought a violent action on their whole front yesterday against German forces. The Bulgarians having apparently been withdrawn as unequal to the task of confronting them and after they had repulsed counter-attacks by their western, they advanced in places.

It was announced at Serbian headquarters that the area of Serbia now liberated now aggregates 1200 square kilometers or nearly 500 miles.
 North of Monastir the French are continuing the struggle under very difficult conditions, yet they and the Serbians broke down violent counter-attacks launched by reinforcements received by the enemy, and then the allies advanced to the assault and they captured the village of Par-alovo, taking 300 prisoners.

The French forces operating on the western shore of Lake Presba, west of Monastir, advanced to the outskirts of Hotovesvo.

The Italians, starting on Monday, entered into action in the mountain region west of Monastir, and they repulsed a violent attack from Mount Muva. They then pressed their advance towards the north and they captured the heights south of Bradino, northwest of Monastir, yesterday.

ADMIRALTY CLASHES WITH WAR BOARD

Important Resignations May Re- sult, Says The London Mail.

London, Nov. 24.—According to The Mail, a critical situation has arisen in consequence of the government's repeated postponement of consideration of the British war board's demands for fuller powers and the admiralty's refusal to agree to this.

RUSSIAN DREADNOUGHT IS SUNK BY EXPLOSION

Two Hundred of Crew of Imperatritsa Maria Missing, Says Official Statement Issued at Petrograd.

London, Friday, Nov. 24.—Russia officially announces the loss of the dreadnought Imperatritsa Maria. A statement issued at Petrograd, reads:
 "The Russian dreadnought Im-peratritsa Maria has been sunk by an internal explosion. Two hundred of the crew are missing."

The Russian naval staff, says a Reuter despatch from Petrograd, has issued the following statement:
 "At 8 o'clock on October 20, fire broke out in the forward magazine of the Imperatritsa Maria. An internal explosion followed immediately and the fire spread rapidly and reached the petrol tanks. The officers and crew strove with the utmost bravery to localize the effects of the explosion and flood the magazines. The commander-in-chief, Vice-Admiral Kats-chek, went aboard and took personal command of the operations."

"Shortly after 7 o'clock, however, the vessel sank. The greater part of the crew were saved. An officer and four torpedo tubes.

KEMP SUCCEEDS SAM HUGHES DATE SET FOR BY-ELECTION

Member for East Toronto Sworn In as Minister of Militia at Ottawa— Nomination Day December 14—Will Continue as Head of War Purchasing Commission.

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—Hon. Albert Edward Kemp, M.P. for East Toronto, who has been minister without portfolio in the Borden Cabinet since its formation in 1914, is Canada's new minister of militia and defence, succeeding Lieut.-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes. He was sworn in office by the Duke of Devonshire at Rideau Hall at 5.30 this evening. Before Sir Robert Borden left on his New York visit he offered the portfolio to Mr. Kemp and on the premier's return Mr. Kemp accepted. The order-in-council was passed at a cabinet meeting this afternoon and afterwards, accompanied by Sir Robert Borden and Rodolphe Bodreau, clerk of the privy council, the new minister of militia went to Rideau Hall, where the oath was administered by the governor-general and the roll signed.

A by-election will be necessitated by Mr. Kemp's acceptance of an office of emolument under the crown and it will be held immediately. Speaker Severyn has been summoned to Ottawa to issue the necessary warrant. Nomination day will be Dec. 14.

Mr. Kemp has been minister without portfolio in the Borden administration since 1914, but during the last eighteen months he has been active as chairman of the war purchasing commission. He is one of the leading business men of the Dominion and is possessed of great wealth.

It is not expected that a new head will be appointed to the war purchasing commission. Mr. Kemp has a thorough grasp of the work of the commission and it is believed that he will absorb it into the militia departmental work.

ADMIRALTY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR NICKEL ARRANGEMENTS SAYS HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN

Solicitor-General Says That Canadian Government Has Nothing to Do With Control or Destination of International Nickel Company's Product.

A large and representative audience greeted Hon. Arthur Meighen, solicitor-general of Canada, at Royal Templar's Hall, corner of Queen street and Dovercourt road last night.
 Meighen came to Ottawa to speak on the nickel question, and it was understood that he would make some important announcement on behalf of the government. The occasion presented a brilliant galaxy of local Six Conservative Association for the election of officers, and the balloting proceeded from seven o'clock until nine. Promptly at nine o'clock the solicitor-general entered the hall and was given a hearty ovation. Tom Rooney, the retiring president of the association presided, and the stage presented the annual meeting of the Conservative statesmen, which included his worship the mayor, A.
 Claude Macdonell, M.P., Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, provincial minister of lands and mines, Hon. Dr. Pyne, minister of education and Hon. Thos.
 McGarry, provincial treasurer. The Ontario legislature was represented by Messrs. Crawford, Owens, Mc-Pherson, Price, Donovan and George S. Henry. Controller Cameron and Aldermen MacGregor, Singer and Mc-Brien were also upon the platform.
 The Ward Six Conservatives turned out well, but they were reinforced by Conservative workers from Little York to Mimico. The crowd was ready enough to cheer and gave Mr. Meighen a good reception, but his speech was lawyer-like and pitched in rather a minor key. Not often did he give his audience an opportunity to cheer their enthusiasm.

The expected "important announcement" did not materialize, altho in opening Mr. Meighen stated that he brought a message from the government. He confined himself closely to a discussion of the nickel question, taking as his text a speech upon that subject recently delivered in this city by H. Hartley Dewar, M.L.A. Neither The Toronto World nor its editor was mentioned at the address. Meighen was made to "a section of the Toronto press that was stirring up an artificial agitation."

Unless on Admiralty.
 Taken by and large, Mr. Meighen unloaded the entire responsibility for the nickel situation upon the broad shoulders of the British admiralty.
 He said that not an ounce of nickel went from the refinery of the International Nickel Co. to any place overseas, or to any manufacturer in the United States, without the express approval and consent of the imperial authorities. They checked up the transactions of the nickel company every day, and controlled the destination of all its refined nickel. Mr. Meighen did not refer to the circumstantial charges of The Providence Journal, that the second cargo of the Deutschland was Canadian nickel. He said there was plenty of nickel in the United States, some of it produced in the country, and more imported from New Caledonia. The Deutschland would have no trouble in getting a cargo, and he did not know that Canadian nickel would be any more deadly than any other nickel, but he did not believe that it was Canadian nickel which made up either cargo of the German submarine. He apparently scored to some extent on Mr. Dewar by showing that nearly one million of the 2,300,000 pounds of nickel exported from the United States during the eight months ending Aug. 31, 1916, to "countries other than the allies," went to Viennovotok for the account of the Russian Government, and he complained that Mr. Dewar did not take into account nickel that might have gone to Serbia, Roumania, Portugal and Japan.

Mr. Meighen said the policy of the government might not be considered "an unalloyed success." The ideal plan would have been to forbid all exportation of nickel from Canada, but that was not feasible as we had no nickel that might have gone to Serbia, Roumania, Portugal and Japan. He said that the nickel company was taken eighteen months to construct one. He did not, however, explain why and had not been constructed by this time.

Defends Merton Co.
 The portion of the speech which aroused the least enthusiasm was Meighen's defence of Henry R. Merton Co., of London, a company under German control when the war broke out, and that is still the sole agent for export sales of the International Nickel Company. But here again all the blame was shifted to the British Government which, he said, virtually compelled the nickel company to employ this firm. At the same time Meighen pointed out that in Feb.
 1916, the company was reorganized and all the German stockholders were compelled to sell their stock to British subjects. In short, the solicitor-general defended both the International Nickel Company and the Merton corporation, and made out a sort of an alibi for the Canadian Government by placing all the blame for anything that had gone wrong upon the British admiralty. The admiralty, he said, would continue to control the nickel situation and to run the war without any assistance from Mr. Dewar or Mr. Lindsay.

Refined in United States.
 In 1914, said Mr. Meighen, Canada produced between 10 and 15 per cent of the world's supply of nickel, which was reduced to nickel matte in Canada, and then shipped to the large refinery of the International Nickel Co. in the United States, the Canadian Copper Co. being the shipper. The percentage was the amount Canada supplied on account of the process being such that that percentage of the market could be easily swung to resulting conditions many fields that were previously untouched were now being developed. The International Nickel Company refined the Canadian ore and sold it where it could get a market.
 At the outbreak of the war the question before the government was how best to serve the allies and starve the enemy. The government could have
