ENTHUSIASM FOR WILSON AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS AT DEMOCRATS' CONVENTION. Several Contentious Subjects May Delay For Three Days Presentation of Platform—Fights Over Prohibition, League and Ireland Expected.

San Francisco, Cal., June 28.—The rules committee of the Democratic National convention decided tonight on the following order of procedure: Speeches nominating presidential candidates shall be made before the presentation of a platform; but balloting will be held only after the platform is adopted.

San Francisco, June 28.—From the shadow of the Golden Gate, the hosts of Democracy met on a demonstration that swept the great gathering off its feet.

It was a half hour before the outburst evoked by a sudden display of the president's portrait could be stilled. Again and again, as his name was mentioned, the cheers broke out anew, to culminate in a rousing testimonial that adopted and sent to the White House tonight a striking testimonial of his party's faith and pride in the man who has led it through troublous years.

Arrangements for the first national political convention to be held in the far west had been well made. The great hall, its clean architectural lines almost unmarred by added decorations, was ready, and thru a dozen wide entries thousands poured in with little delay or congestion. They found a wide octagon space awaiting them, with a massive organ rearing its stockade of pipes above the platform, and the other sides rising to a far line of seats under high windows, framing squares of California's bluest skies.

In the centre of the hall where the delegates sat rolled within a wide square of seats, an immense ceiling was suspended, colored in soft, blue tones that rested the eyes and lent something of quiet dignity to the scene. Below, a forest of standards bearing the names of states and territories was the only reminder of national conventions of the past. Perched high beside the organ in a special gallery, a military band whiled away the time.

The Star Spangled Banner. When Vice-Chairman Klemmer of the national committee gave the signal, a burly southerner "attention," the sharp staccato call rang out over the uproar of conversation. The first notes of The Star Spangled Banner rang (Continued on Page 7, Column 2).

'Twill BE A BIG DAY FOR TORONTO TORIES. Speeches and Sports Will Mark Rally in Exhibition Grounds.

The ladies' auxiliaries of the ward associations will meet on Friday night to arrange for their part of the demonstration.

NOT PLAIN SAILING FOR DEMOCRATS AT FRISCO. Bryan Can Always Be Relied On to Furnish Breakers Ahead For Party Ship—McAdoo Seems to Have Advantage Over Cox and Palmer.

The Democratic national convention has assembled at San Francisco, and for the moment the interest of the delegates is centred upon the platform. Mr. Bryan is still determined that the president's league of nations shall not be approved without reservations, and that a stirring prohibition plank shall adorn the platform.

He is likely to be beaten on the league of nations issue in the committee on resolutions, but may win out on his bone-dry prohibition plank. The fight will then be transferred to the floor of the convention, where the league will certainly be endorsed and something like a compromise agreed on in regard to the prohibition plank.

The human interest, however, attaches to the treated in the committee and a good deal of the skirmishing over the platform will have for its purpose a lining up of delegates for or against Mr. Bryan and for or against Mr. Bryan and for or against Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, who is the candidate with the biggest following before the convention. The actual balloting will not commence before Wednesday, or possibly Thursday.

May Pivot on Ohio. Governor Cox's chief asset is the fact that he has been twice elected governor of Ohio on the Democratic ticket. Ohio, with Cox as the Democratic candidate, would become the battleground in the next campaign. The state went Republican at every presidential election from 1856 to 1908, but cast her electoral vote for Mr. Wilson in 1912 and again in 1916. The Bull Moose sentiment was rampant in Ohio during the lifetime of Theodore Roosevelt, and Senator Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, fought this sentiment tooth and nail, even to the point of personal attacks upon Mr. Roosevelt. He might lose the state in Governor Cox. On the other hand, the open hostility of the National Anti-Saloon League seems to menace Cox with defeat in the convention. Labeled as a wet candidate, he will probably find it (Continued on Page 4, Column 3).

STILL PARTY IDOL

President Woodrow Wilson, if the proceedings at the San Francisco convention are a reliable guide, has not lost any of his hold on the Democrats.

GEN. ROSS MAY SHOW UP SYSTEM AT PENITENTIARY. Will Give Public Facts If Borden Refuses Portsmouth Probe.

DENIES EXAGGERATION. Kingston, June 28.—(Special)—Brigadier-General Ross stated today that if Sir Robert Borden does not make a thorough investigation into recent dismissals in the penitentiary, he will appeal to the public and show up the system under which the penitentiary is being conducted.

Parliamentary Reform. The whole matter is up to Premier Borden, remarked General Ross. It is characterized as false a statement of the prison superintendent, in a letter to Premier Borden, that all of the complaints registered were "100 per cent, exaggeration," and said that sensible people would tolerate the treatment meted out to officials who had spent many years in the service upon such ridiculous charges based upon pure presumption and the flimsiest evidence. There was nothing, he said, to warrant summary dismissal of men whose standing in the community is beyond reproach. Superintendent Hughes, he said, stated that only one man was dismissed, whereas those who resigned were practically dismissed, for their resignation was demanded.

Allowed No Photos. Gen. Ross states that he is not after anybody's scalp, but he is determined that honest officials who have spent their lives in the service without a reproach are not going to be treated as these men have been.

Think of a poor prisoner tearing up the photograph of his mother in his cell to prevent it being forcibly taken from him," remarked Gen. Ross. "Prisoners who are not in an order issued have pictures, letters or books in their possession. It is an order of that nature, consistent with any policy of reformation."
