METHODIST CHURCH LOSES A LEADER BY DR. PAISLEY'S DEATH

Veteran Clergyman and Prominent Educationist Died This Morning--He Will Be Missed By His Church and By Mount Allison Institutions.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 20--(Special)--Rev. Charles H. Paisley, M. A., D. D., dean of Mount Allison University and professor of New Testament Exegesis, and church history, died very suddenly at two o'clock this morning of heart failure. He was as well as usual yesterday, being able to attend church. He was in his sixty-fifth year. He leaves a wife, who was formerly Miss Louise Frater Savers, of Halifax, two daughters, Mrs. W. H. Watson, of Sackville, and Mrs. C. H. Johnson, of River Philip, N. S. one son, Herbert F., editor of the Sackville Tribune. One sister, Miss Mary A. Paisley, Halifax, and one brother, Thomas J., of Newton, Iowa. The funeral will be held from the Methodist church here at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. No flowers.

In the death of Rev. Charles H. Paisley, D. D., dean of the theological faculty of Mount Allison University, which occurred suddenly at Sackville this morning, the Methodist church in the maritime provinces loses one of its foremost ministers, and the community an earnest and scholarly citizen.

Few men in the Methodist church were better known than Dr. Paisley and none could be more missed. Dr. Paisley, although not so strong during the past few years as in his earlier days in the ministry had nevertheless been enjoying very good health and was yesterday going about his Master's business as usual. This morning, however, he took suddenly ill and passed away at his home, near the institution for which he has labored so well and faithfully.

Twelve years has he spent on the faculty of the Mount Allison University and for the past five years as dean of the theological faculty. He has labored zealously for the good of the institution. Previous to taking the professorship at the college he was on the circuit and for a time was pastor of the Carleton Methodist church of the west side.

To the members of the ministerial conference here and elsewhere and to church members and citizens generally the report of his death comes as a great shock and the sympathy of a very large circle of friends will be extended to the bereaved family.

DR. SPRAGUE'S TRIBUTE. Rev. Dr. Howard Sprague, pastor of Centenary Methodist church, received word of Dr. Paisley's death this morning. He said he had known the doctor for many years and had been an intimate friend. Speaking of his service for the church, he said Dr. Paisley entered the ministry in 1870 and was secretary of the Methodist conference in 1878 and president in 1888. He was a member of every general conference for the last 18 or 20 years, and always took a very active part in the affairs of the annual and general conferences. He always took part in the discussions on church matters, and no one in the conference was listened to with more attention. He was an authority on matters relating to the constitution and law of the Methodist church, and his utterances were always given careful consideration. He was a very careful student and was looked up to for his scholarly attainments. He was a graduate of the U. N. B., and gave special attention to the study of the New Testament, Greek and all New Testament literature. Twenty years ago he was appointed to a professorship at Mount Allison University, and five years ago, on the retirement of Dr. Stewart, he was appointed dean of the theological faculty. "He was a man," said Dr. Sprague, "in whom all the brethren in the ministry had the greatest confidence. He put the good of the church and the property of the Kingdom of Christ before any other consideration. He did it in his power in the advancement of the cause." His death removes one of the most intellectual and earnest professors of the Methodist church in this section of Canada.

REMOVAL OF WEST INDIAN SEAFISHPS ONION REAL WOULD NOT HELP BUSINESS

I. C. Stewart of Maritime Merchant Talks Of the Proposed Change--Not Possible To Get Cheaper Freight Rates Elsewhere Than From St. John--Tariff Preference The Solution.

The proposal of the Montreal board of trade that the West Indian steamers should proceed to that port in the summer season has aroused much interest in St. John and Halifax.

I. C. Stewart, of Halifax, who spent Sunday at the Royal, was asked this morning to state his views to the Times. Mr. Stewart has a large acquaintance with West India trade conditions, having made several visits of some duration at the different West India islands, with a view of ascertaining what Canada's prospects may be for a further development of business. He does not think that the general export trade of this country will be benefited by sending the boats to Montreal.

HIRAM'S WRATH ENKINDLED. Mr. Hiram Hornbeam created no small commotion at Indiantown this morning. He arrived there, with a large posse, and went to the wharf to board the steamer Victoria for Fredericton. He found no body in the ticket office, no bustle of preparation around the warehouse--in fact no sign whatever of the departure of a steamer for the capital. There was more or less ice in the vicinity. Hiram began to make enquiries. He was informed that the steamers had not been running for many weeks past, and would not be on the route again until spring.
