TIMES' WASHINGTON LETTER

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 2.— President Roosevelt returned to Washington about noon Tuesday after a trip to the South, and was met at the Navy Yard by the officials of the yard, the marines, the marine band, and a thousand citizens who had collected to witness his departure from the presidential boat, the Dolphin. He was apparently in the best of health and spirits, and though his voyage had been rough and stormy he had accomplished it without sickness and evidently with great enjoyment. That was "Roosevelt luck" again, for the president had often been a victim of seasickness, and laughingly said before going on ship board at New Orleans, "When did I ever go to sea that I was sick?" It was said that he had been in the presence of his nobles, but the irreverent American people would be apt to laugh at a president who succumbed to seasickness, and so Roosevelt's luck intervened to show that he is as sturdy a sailor as he is a hunter.

FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Fairville and the Neptunes played a tie game on the Victoria grounds Saturday in a pouring rain. After a desperate struggle with a slippery ball neither side scored. The Y. M. C. A. also played a tie game with the Neptunes.

The result places the Neptunes and Neptunes on even terms with twenty-seven points each for the Moore trophy. The contest between these two teams next Saturday should be a grand one. Saturday's game was entirely a forward rush, the play was much too "greasy" for the backs to handle. This style of game, however, was the best suited to the boys from across the bridge, as their scrimmage was much the heavier, averaging probably 100 pounds. There were some short runs by the backs but none of any consequence, as the bad state of the field made it out of the question to set on any speed. The result was not a surprise after the showing the Fairville team made the Saturday previous.

A particular feature of the game was the playing by the Fairville team of two Mon-ton Hays. Harry Carter was in the Lightner in the last line. The latter was formerly of the Charlottetown team. He also played by the Neptunes of Burton, formerly of Acadia College, but who is in town for a few days.

Referee Pinsky called the men on the field at about 2:30 and the lineup was:

FITZ vs O'BRIEN

Fitz says that his fight with O'Brien is sure if Jack keeps his nerve.

Fitz needs no fear on that score as long as there is a good bunch of money in sight.

O'Brien's net ring earnings during the past year cannot be less than $100,000, and he will be unwilling to let his bit of the soft money which goes with this bout escape his clutches.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Annual Financial Statement of The Society Read in the Cathedral Yesterday Morning.

In the Cathedral yesterday morning the statement of the St. Vincent de Paul Society for the year ending October 31 was read at the three masses.

At the seven o'clock mass, Rev. J. W.
Holland spoke at some length on the good work that is being achieved by the society for the poor, and, as did Bishop Coey at the nine o'clock mass, commended it to the congregation. At the eleven o'clock mass, Father Holland was the speaker and also referred in an eloquent manner to the noble work that the society has done during the past year and informed the congregation that the yearly collection for this society would be taken at the doors of the Cathedral next Sunday.

The report read was as follows:—

Receipts.

Balance from last year .. $ 21.82
