FAIRVILLE EVENTS OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Red Cross Function a Great Success; So Also St. Rose's Dramatic Production

A very successful tea was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. V. Anglin under the auspices of the Lancaster Parish Red Cross Society, and there is ample evidence that results will be highly satisfactory to all interested. An immense Union Jack occupied a conspicuous place on the outside of the house and at various other vantage points flags were in evidence, the whole effect being most pleasing and patriotic. Inside the decorations were green and white, in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. A pot of shamrock was in the centre of each small table, while the centre piece for the large dining table was a Paddy hat filled with shamrock. Tea was served from four to six o'clock. The refreshments were dished out to the smallest detail.

Mrs. J. V. Anglin and Mrs. Charles Tilton poured and the ice cream was in charge of Mrs. Fraser, assisted by Mrs. Hallifax and Miss Ferris. A pantry sale was under the direction of Mrs. Cecil McVell with Mrs. Thos. Duffield, Miss Douglas and Miss Edna Ready assistants. Three candy tables were presided over by Miss Beatrice Compton, Mrs. Dunlop and Mrs. McCarthy.

Those who replenished were: Mrs. Richard Cushing, Mrs. J. M. Queen, Mrs. James Lowell, Mrs. Traeman, Mrs. John Stears.

Tea was served by the following ladies: Mrs. Murray Long, Mrs. Richard Stuart, Mrs. James McLennan, Mrs. Wm. Baxter, Mrs. Cliff Sutton, Mrs. Chas. Barnhill, Miss Margaret Dunham, Miss Gertrude Lowell, Miss Ethel Wilson, Mrs. Chas. Brownell, Miss Eliza Beth Long, Miss Jen Gregg, Mrs. J. M. Roach, Mrs. H. M. Stout, Miss Helen Gregory, Miss Godfrey, Miss Cowan, Miss Edinoll, Miss Marie Ready, Mrs. W. A. Anderson, Mrs. S. A. Worrell, treasurer, looked after the door receipts and Mrs. L. A. Condon considered for a cut glass bowl, donated to the society which brought good returns. A feature which attracted considerable interest, and rightly so, were four checks of $25 each, contributed to the society and proudly displayed in the dining room, as prizes already won and bearing the best of good will from the donors, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Dr. F. L. Kenny, W. E. Foster and E. L. Rising.

The committee in charge of which Mrs. Louise Hetherington was convener, have every reason to feel gratified not only in the attendance, but also the expressions of congratulation at the whole and bearing the best of good will from the donors, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Dr. F. L. Kenny, W. E. Foster and E. L. Rising.

St. Rose's Play

The St. Rose Dramatic Club staged another successful play last night in the presentation of "Tris" or Beyond the Rockies. The attendance was so large that the hall was full to gain entrance to the hall after 8 o'clock and it is believed the financial returns will be very gratifying.

In the role of Tris, Miss Blanche O'Brien added to laurels already won in previous performances at the whole and natural and effective throughout. Misses Margaret O'Keefe and May Conway did excellently and entered into the spirit of the piece from the rise of the curtain.

The male cast was fully up to the standard including J. J. O'Toole and W. J. Quigg. J. C. Calnan proved himself a very satisfactory villain and J. G. Hennessy, the hero, was fully up to the demands made upon Macaulay. The other members of the club acquitted themselves creditably and the stage settings and scenery were in harmony with the requirements. The proceeds are to be given to the orphans. The play will be repeated this evening when another record audience is looked for.

The following is the cast of characters:

Hank Jordan, W. J. Quigg; Nat. Webber, J. G. Hennessy; Jack Hamlin, J. C. Calnan; Judge Annans Lovetoddy, J. J. O'Toole; Hallelujah Billy, J. Jamieson; Zena Grimes, Thos. Conway; Braose Bill, W. MacKinnon; Omaha Jake, J. Murphy; Californian Joe, Eugene Gillis; Arizona Jack, Edward Gillis; Officer, J. McCurdy; Susie Smith, Miss May Conway; Mrs. Robbie and Miss Penelope Prim, Miss Margaret O'Keefe; Tris, Miss Blanche O'Brien.

The specialties were "When I Dream of Old Erin, I'm Dreaming of You," Messrs. Wilfred McKinnon, Eugene Gillis, Edward Gillis, Joseph Murphy, and James McCurdy; "Mother Machree," "Tip Top Tipperary Mary," Mrs. James T. Dalton; violin solo, "Sounds from Erin," Miss Irene Macaulay; Big reel dancing, Matthew Humphrey; Melodies of Ireland, Master Cyril Looney; James Lacey, Irish comedian and dancer.

The ladies of Baxter L.O.B.A. held a supper and sale in the Orange Hall, Fairville, last evening and it was liberally patronized. In addition to the local members, young ladies from west end and Lovville assisted at the tables and the arrangements were carried out very successfully. After tea games were played and prizes won. Tonight will be devoted entirely to games and similar amusements.

BUNDLE OF STRAW HIS WRITING TABLE

Letter From Otty D. Lingley Formerly of Street Railway Staff

Mrs. Lingley of 87 High street has received a letter from her son, Otty D., who is with the First Canadian Contingent now in France. At the time he wrote he was in the best of health, although his accommodations were not like those of a hotel. Instead of a writing desk or table he used a bundle of straw, and was in a barn. He also sent his photograph taken at Salisbury Plains which shows that he was ready and fit to take his place in the field and in the front line. He was formerly employed with the St. John street Railway Co. and would like to be remembered to his fellow workmen of the union as well as many others in St. John.

Germans are reported fortifying the valley of the Lague and near Muelhausen and Altkirch where an important action is expected.

PRACTICAL WORK OF BOYS' CLUB

How They Found and Cared For Lad Who Had Left Farm, and Got Him Back to Right Track

An illustration of the value of work among boys was given recently in connection with the Boys' Club conducted by the St. John Playgrounds Association under the direction of Supt. C. D. Howard.

A boy who had been living with a farmer not far from the city left the place and came to town. He spent one night wandering about the streets. The next night some members of the Boys' Club heard his story. There was one place in St. John where they knew they could take this boy and have something done for him, so they took him to the Boys' Club in Union street. His story was told to Superintendent Howard and the boys present, with the superintendent took a collection for his benefit. Mr. Howard took the boy to the Metropole and paid for his bed and breakfast.

In the morning two of the boys took the wanderer to a place where he immediately got work. Mr. Howard, however, his former home, and pointed out to him what a very large number of boys there were in St. John who were not so comfortable as he had been there. The end of it was that the farmer was told where the boy was, and when he came, the latter willingly returned with him.

One of the greatest aims of the Boys' Club is to develop and encourage in this spirit of helpfulness and thoughtfulness for the good of the other fellow. It may be added that after Mr. Howard had paid for the boy's night at the Metropole there was a balance from the fund contributed by the boys and they at once voted it into the club's funds.
