HAS BEEN IN 14 YEARS IN ORDER

P. E. Rolsay Now Head of Prentice Boys of British America.

For the second consecutive time, a West St. John man was elected Right Worshipful Grand Master of the Protestant Association of Prentice Boys of British America when L. E. Rolsay was selected to succeed Renwick J. Anderson at the annual meeting recently in Fredericton. Mr. Rolsay, who was born and brought up in the North End, joined the order in 1910 and has been one of the most active members of King Edward Lodge.

For three years he served as Worshipful Master. When he took the chair, the lodge was heavily in debt but during his mastership, a debt of $2,700 was wiped out and the mortgage on the building was paid in full. He served two years as deputy grand master and was slated for the grand mastership a year ago but was unable to attend the convention owing to illness. This year he was nominated and elected unanimously.

The other lodge in the city besides the King Edward is the Union Jack Lodge. According to reports at the annual meeting, the organization is in a flourishing condition.

ARREST WINS HIGH TRIBUTE IN COURT FOR BIDDISCOMBE

(Continued from page 1.) is wanted in Bangor on the charge of stealing a high-priced Packard automobile and he is being looked for in another section of Maine on the charge of theft of a Cadillac touring car.

The St. Stephen police want him for a break into the Watson drug store at that place and it is stated by Chief of Police Hopkins, Newcastle, that O'Brien is also wanted at Edmundston, N.B. and Fredericton for theft.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago breaks had been made by some person in Newcastle and the surrounding district. A man who was driving through the country in a State of Maine Cadillac car was believed to be the person responsible. Chief of Police Hopkins and another officer of the Newcastle police force got a line on the man. The officer stepped on the running-board of the car and received a blow in the face and fell stepped on the gas and hastened away.

O'Brien has acknowledged to the detectives here that he was the man who made the breaks in Northumberland, and that he was the same person who got clear of Chief Hopkins and the other officer.

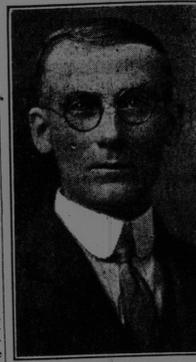

On the way he would call at St. Stephen and bring Chief of Police Hill with him to St. John. The latter will take O'Brien into custody. They are expected to arrive in the city some time today, but the local officials do not know just when.

HERE'S THE LAW RE OLD BURIAL GROUND

Legislature Would Have to Pass Act for Memorial Park Plan.

Under the legislation which governs the use of the Old Burying Ground it would be impossible for the city to use this area as a park without first going to the legislature and securing an amendment to an act which was passed in March, 1848, and which sets forth that this area is not to be used for any purpose than a burying ground. Under the act passed at that time the City Council is forbidden to place any building in the graveyard or to disturb any grave but they are permitted to fence it, the law in this connection being only permissive.

The following sections from the Act show very fully just what the powers of the Council are in this regard: "And whereas under and by virtue of the charter of the City of Saint John, the legal estate in the said burial ground became vested in the Mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the City of Saint John, and the same has been granted by them as and for a public burial ground, and for no other use or purpose;

"And whereas certain rights have been acquired by the representatives and relatives of deceased persons there interred, and are now existing to certain portions of the said burial ground, and to certain enclosures, erections, monuments, and tombstones now there standing and being—it shall not be lawful for the said Mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the said city, or any person by their direction or authority, to disturb any grave or remove, or to pull down, displace, or remove, or to prevent the repair or removal of any enclosure, paling, fence, monument or tombstone heretofore placed or standing in the said burial ground.

"All and every grant and conveyance whatsoever heretofore made or hereafter to be made by the said Mayor, aldermen and commonalty of the City of Saint John, of the said burial ground, or any part or portion thereof, is and shall be ipso facto void; and the same and every part and portion thereof shall not be liable to be levied upon or taken in execution of the debts of any person or persons whatsoever; and the area of the same shall be and for ever remain open and unoccupied and unappropriated to any use or purpose, public or private; and all buildings, houses, erections of any nature or kind or structure that shall be erected, placed, or found in the said burial ground hereafter, shall be held taken, demised, and adjudged to be public and common nuisances, and be treated as such accordingly; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintaining and keeping by the said Mayor, aldermen and commonalty, of a good and sufficient enclosure round the said ground, with proper gates and conveniences to admit the passage into the said ground of all persons under such regulations as to the said Mayor, aldermen and commonalty may seem meet, or to prevent the ornamenting, planting, or otherwise improving the said burial ground.

BOOKS PRESENTED LORNEVILLE SCHOOL

Mrs. Walter E. Foster and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed, of the DeMotts Chapter, L. O. E., presented books to the library of Lorneville school district No. 11 on Friday morning, when the school closed for the summer. Both ladies addressed the children and listened to a good programme presented by the children, who were carefully instructed by their teacher, Miss Bessie Seymour. The library of this school has now 200 books. Prizes were given by the DeMotts Chapter for history, geography, and civics. The programme consisted of an address of welcome by Muriel Downey, one of the pupils; a review of spelling, Grade I; geography, Grade II, and III; recitations by Leonard Ferguson, Edith McCavour, Clarence Maguire, Harold McCavour, and Edith McCavour, and a recitation by Grade IV; history lesson, Grade V; physical drill by the seniors; and a series of rhymes, which were well sung. The National Anthem closed a programme, which received great commendation from the visitors assembled.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram, "if this is a present book, I'm just about half dead with a cold." "That is too bad," said the reporter. "This is a very bad time of year to have a cold." "You ain't the only one," said Hiram. "Now here's the book—'What she he says' by Bill Hooker. He told her he had to go to town to get a black suit to wear to his aunt's funeral—'an' Birdie she says: 'Oh, how nice!' Then she thought of herself 'an' felt like crawling under the barn. Some day I'm gonna preach a sermon on the sin of speakin' without thinkin'—an' the waste of words when folks gits gabbin' 'jest to hear themselves talk.' The's an awful lot of times you kin talk the best by jist holdin' your tongue. I seen a feller the other day that hed a wife an' fourteen kids because he didn't hold his tongue at the right time—Yes, sir."
