HEAD OF ORGANIZED BASEBALL AND PROMINENT SPORTING WRITERS MAY ATTEND PROPOSED SKATING MEET HERE

Judge Landis Has Accepted Invitation for Trip Between Jan. 20 and Feb. 8—Joe Page is Appointed Delegate of N. B. A. S. A. to Annual Meeting of I. S. U. on November 16 at New York.

Judge Keneaw Mountain Landis, supreme ruler of organized baseball, in company with the leading sport editors of the United States, may be honored guests at the big skating meet here this winter, which the N. B. A. S. A. Skating Association decided to apply for at a meeting yesterday, according to "Joe" Page. Mr. Page says the C. P. R. has organized a winter trip for Judge Landis and writers for big papers in St. Louis, Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Brooklyn to be taken sometime between January 20 and February 8. "Judge Landis already has accepted as has James Gould, sporting editor of a St. Louis newspaper, Harry Edwards, sporting editor of the Cleveland Press, and others. If St. John can secure its big meet in between these dates, then these men will come to St. John to witness the races. I think you can appreciate what this would mean to St. John in the way of advertising."

"At a meeting in the offices of the N. B. Publishing Co. Ltd., Canterbury street, yesterday, the New Brunswick Amateur Skating Association delegated Mr. Page as its representative to the I. S. U. meeting at the Marlborough Hotel, Nov. 16 when the question of the affiliation of the provincial body will be considered as well as the allocating of the various big meets for the winter. Frank White presided and there was a good attendance.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved, N. P. McLeod, chairman of the executive committee, reported that after obtaining the names of a number of clubs in New Brunswick, he communicated with these clubs requesting the same to become affiliated with the N. B. A. S. A., pointing out that each club was eligible to have the suspension and allow Mr. McLeod to compete in amateur speed events during the coming winter. On motion K. J. MacRae was added to the executive committee.

The meeting adjourned until next Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the Telegraph-Journal building.

CITY BOWLING LEAGUE FORMED

At a meeting held in the Studio last night, the City Bowling League was organized and expected to get under way about Wednesday of next week. This is the nineteenth season for this league and the outlook is for a better year than last. It was decided to drop the inter-city system adopted last year, as it was felt the league had not received the support it should of under that system. The teams this year will play on Black's and the Imperial alleys, but keeping the inter-city interest among the stronger bowlers as seen possible in both ends of the city.

Seven entries were received and more are expected to report at the next meeting, which will be held Thursday night. It is thought that ten teams is all that can be handled, and it was decided to accept the entries of the stronger teams so as to keep the scoring of this, the senior league, at as high an average as possible.

Election of officers and other business was left over for the Thursday meeting. The remaining business of the league for last year was brought up by the N. B. C. A. alleys last night, the committee to wind up at once.

Judging from the interest displayed it looks like the best year the City League has had.

"DICK" CASEY IN BOSTON POLITICS

The many friends of Dick Casey, who played first for the Moncton professional club in the N. B. Pro. League in 1923, will learn with pleasure that he has deserted the diamond for the realm of politics and was running yesterday in Wards 19 and 20 in Massachusetts. Dick survived the preliminaries and when a local man was in Boston recently he found Casey banners displayed more prominently than Coolidge in the particular constituency in which Dick was running. Dick has had a more or less varied career since leaving the N. B. League, for he is reported to have broken up a gasoline trust in his vicinity and reduced the price of gasoline to 12 and 13 cents a gallon. In addition to politics at the present time he is interested in coal, having secured between 4,000 and 5,000 tons of coal, and is selling it at low rates.

TRAJANS HAVE TEA

Hallowe'en still lingered last evening at the Y. M. C. A., where the Trajans were given splendid aid by their lady friends of the Y. M. C. A. auxiliary, who held a successful tea and sale of candy from 4 to 6 o'clock in the large reception hall upstairs. Miss Margaret H. Gidding was general convenor. Mrs. D. R. Willet and Mrs. S. J. MacGowan presided over the tea and coffee. Those who served were the Misses Lois Watters, Eleanor Romney, Louise Malcolm, Eunice Stephenson, Grace Marshall, Hazel Fisher, Josephine Humphrey, Marian MacPherson, Lorna Davis and Margaret Gidding. Mrs. Reginald G. March had charge of the candy table and Mrs. A. Douglas Malcolm of the tickets. Mrs. John Gidding, Mrs. Sidney L. Kerr, Mrs. G. S. Shaw and Mrs. H. D. Frits replenished.

WADE TO REPORT TO CANADIENS ON NOV. 16 AND WILL TRAIN AT GRIMSBY

Local Fans Hope Marysville Star Will Make Good in Fast Company.

The exclusive announcement in The Times-Star yesterday that Edgar Wade, Marysville hockey star, had been finally signed up by the Montreal Canadiens, champions of the world, was confirmed last night in a press despatch from Montreal quoting Leo Dandurand, manager of the team. "I have Wade's contract now" says Dandurand "and I have received word from him tonight that he would report to us on Sunday, Nov. 16. Wade will leave with the rest of the team for their preliminary training in Grimsby, Ont., the day he reports."

Wade, who is one of the outstanding hockey players developed in years in this province, is a nephew of W. Harry Allen, of Pennington, New Brunswick's most famous golfer, and during the hunting season often assists Mr. Allen in conducting his parties. He therefore, has a wide acquaintance with sportsmen of the province. During the war years, Wade served as a member of the 9th Siege Battery located in St. John and considerable respect for his hockey ability is entertained here. He is a member of the well-known hockey family of Wade, there being two brothers and three cousins who have kept Marysville on the hockey map for many years.

He is a member of the well-known hockey family of Wade, there being two brothers and three cousins who have kept Marysville on the hockey map for many years.

When Wade made the trip last year with the U. N. B. team that toured the New England states and Upper Canada, his work attracted attention in Boston and this season he was approached by the backers of the new Boston club in the National Hockey League to sign a contract. "Joe" Page, Boston's well-known sports writer, who got the inside track and only last week-end secured Wade's signature to a Canadian contract, thus keeping him in Canada. It is seldom a New Brunswick boy is invited in this way to join the champion club of the world and in its own way is equivalent to asking a New Brunswick ball player to join the Washington Senators, world's champions. The terms of Wade's contract are not known but it is learned on good authority they are generous with a promise of a substantial increase if he makes good.

The only maritime province man who has made good in faster hockey circles within recent years is "Red" Stuart, of Amherst. Stanton Jackson, also of Amherst, was tried out last winter but was not given proper opportunity. Stuart, however, has developed into one of the most valuable defense players in the National Hockey League and is a sure fixture this year with St. Pats, of Toronto.

Wade, the guide and brother of Edgar, was in the city yesterday on a flying visit. He says his brother is in good condition and eager to make the grade. The outlook for pro hockey is decidedly bright this winter with the inclusion of new blood in the circuit through the addition of the Boston and second Montreal team. This means that more players will be required for a longer grind and that the team strongest in pro hockey is the chance of coming out on top. Wade has a fine opportunity.

MANY CHALLENGE FOR BOXING TITLES

Elimination Bouts Will Start Friday Night—Mandell Meets Bernstein.

New York, November 5.—The heads of inactive wearers of pugilistic crowns will be uneasy this week as strong rivals peer into the throne rooms to battle for the right to challenge.

The most seriously threatened will be Benny Leonard, ruler of the lightweights for many years. On Friday night at Madison Square Garden Samy Mandell, of Rockford, will meet Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, for the third time. The winner of this bout will be matched with the victor in the Sid Terris-Luis Vicentini fight arranged for November 28.

The ultimate winner of the informal tournament will emerge as the logical challenger to Leonard and in the opinion of many critics here, will probably be the next champion.

Vicentini is the hitter, Terris the flash, Mandell, the best rounded fighter, and Bernstein the veteran of the challenges.

Among the flyweights, with Champion Pancho Villa forced into semi-retirement by an edict of the state athletic commission, Al Brown, a wiry Panamanian, will make his "down-town" debut in New York next week against Tommy Milton. The two lads are regarded as the best flyweight aspirants. Brown is a hitter, and if brought along slowly, looks to be the majority of sport writers here will be matched with Frankie Genaro if he defeats Milton.

The third threat, yet vague, is to Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, now in New York "fighting the foot-lights." Sully Montgomery, former Central College football player, will meet Quinton Romero, Chilean slugger, in the main bout of a heavyweight tour-

COLD WATER IS FINE

Eva Morrison, 19, of Nova Scotia, just swam the seven miles from Deer Island to Graves Light, Boston, in 2 hours, 43 minutes. The temperature of the water was 48 degrees.

ARENA BOUTS ARE SET OVER A WEEK

"Billy" Groff to Meet Gordon Paris in Fredericton on Nov. 21.

"Billy" Groff, western boxer who is well-known here, has been matched with Gordon Paris, local colored welterweight, for Fredericton on the night of Friday, Nov. 21 under the auspices of the Salvage Corps. Groff was in the city yesterday from the capital where he is working for the Consolidated Press. Johnny McIntyre waits Groff as a sparring partner for his bout with Jimmy Frusetti, which has been postponed until Friday, November 14. Groff predicts that McIntyre will win this bout. He says McIntyre has improved wonderfully within the last year and is a much harder puncher than Frusetti. As Groff has met both men, he should have a fairly good idea of their punching ability. Groff and Paris met in a St. John ring, the result being a draw.

CHICAGO WILL GET BALKLINE TOURNEY

New York, Nov. 5.—Chicago will be the scene of the next world's 18.2 balking championship tournament. While definite announcement has been withheld for the present, the balking stars will meet in Chicago either in February or March. There will be at least seven entries, with Willie Hoppe, the champion; Young Jake Schaefer, former champion; Walter Cochran of Los Angeles, Edmond Dierker of Belgium, Erich Hagelacher of Germany, Edmond Derblat of France and the holder of the national junior 18.2 balking title at the time the tournament is staged, as the players expected to compete. For the last three tournaments only six players have competed. As soon as all arrangements for the tournament are completed a final announcement of the details will be made. All the candidates are in this country at present with the exception of Dierker, but his choice has not been final, as at least two other French players are under consideration.

ENGLISHMEN THINK BASEBALL IS SLOW

Experts Compare It With Cricket—Say It is Monotonous.

London, Nov. 5.—Americans who scorn cricket as a slow and soporific sport ought to be told that the English or at least some of them, think that baseball is monotonous. Such was the conclusion of the cricket experts of the London newspapers who reported the first of the games played between the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox in the British capital last week.

"An inning by the dull professional cricketer who ever dawdled through the leaden hours on an English cricket ground has infinite variety when compared with the twacking of a baseball star," says the sober judgment of the Manchester Guardian Reporter. "He has only two possible strokes: one is the slow one, with a cross bat, the other is a smothering stroke which will enable him to bolt for first base as in tip-run while the pitcher and catcher tumble over each other in rescuing the ball from the mid-wicket."

"What usually happens is that the striker slogs the ball into deep field, high in the air, whence it descends into one of the capacious gloves whose wearers are quite infallible in getting to the right place for the catch."

"There is no obviously perceptible variation in the pitching which is all as fast and furious as may be, but, of course, there is enormous skill in it."
