Congress Adjourned.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Almost ten months of legislative action ended yesterday with adjournment of the second session of the sixty-seventh congress sine die. From the Canadian viewpoint, passage of the permanent tariff revision was the chief feature of the session.

What the League Has Achieved.

(Ottawa Citizen.) American readers were given an authoritative summary of the actual accomplishments of the League of Nations in the September issue of Current History, by Arthur Sweetser, a member of the league secretariat at Geneva. First comes the establishment of an efficient and quick-moving machine for conference. A single example of the action of the league in this regard was in connection with the Yugoslav-Albanian difficulty in September, 1921. Within one week of Lloyd George's request that the council consider the situation, notices had been sent out and the nations assembled around the conference table, as a result of which an impending war was averted.

The second achievement is the formation of a world court of justice and world organizations of transit, finance, economics, etc. Within twenty-seven months of its inception the world court of arbitration was in actual session—this being the quickest drafting, ratification and exception of a peace-time international proposal that has ever taken place. This court is unprecedented in its permanent court, and a court of law, and in having the assistance of not less than eighteen nations that will give it complete jurisdiction over all disputes arising between them.

The third achievement is in connection with actual world reconstruction. The three conferences at Brussels, dealing with Austrian finance; at Paris, dealing with passport and customs procedures, and at Barcelona, which laid down a new international law for liberty of transit in connection with trade—are its most notable features.

The fourth achievement is essentially a promise of what the world is looking for, is hoping for, is a future possibility, namely, the prevention of actual hostilities. In this connection the Yugoslav-Albanian difficulty, referred to above, which had almost reached a breaking point, was settled and hostilities prevented.

Latest Shipman Film Gets Advance of $125,000

Ottawa picture produced under the man behind the technical end of New Brunswick Films, Ltd., shows this record to date:

Begun May 5. Dealer Inspection in New York last week.

Total Cost $67,000 First Sale $125,000 (Paid in Cash Advances)

To sell yet—about five or six years.

Not only have initial results returned the original capital paid in, but they have provided a margin that more than secures a second picture for practically nothing. "The Man From Glengarry" is being followed by "Glengarry School Days," which, favored by the use of much of the original equipment, can be well covered by $40,000 of the $125,000 brought in at the start of the first production.

Business men who have realized the advantages enjoyed from the standpoint of Maritime scenery and story by "Blue Water," should address their subscriptions to The New Brunswick Films, Limited, immediately. The lists are about to be closed.

CANADA PERMANENT MORTGAGE CORPORATION New Brunswick Branch, 63 Prince Wm. Street, St. John, N. B. R. F. WRIGHT, Manager. T. A. McAVITY, Inspector

point, was solved, the Polish-Lithuanian prevented, and successful mediation was accomplished in the case of the Aland Islands and Upper Silesia. In the latter instance, the satisfactory solution was reached after the Allied supreme council, representing the most prominent military body in the world, had admitted its own complete failure.

The other achievements have had to do with the arranging of a new kind of international supervision in certain vexed peace conference problems of mandate, minorities, the Saar Valley, and Danzig; with the co-ordination of many isolated and struggling international activities, such as the opium and its associated traffic, and the co-ordination of various humanitarian tasks, such as the repatriation of almost half a million prisoners, the helping of nearly a million Russians and the freeing of thousands of Christian women held prisoner in the hands of the Turks.

Such in brief is the history of the achievements of the League of Nations up to the middle of July of this year. It does not claim to be, nor do its friends claim that it is, a super-state, rather it is what has been termed a co-operative world movement, the first of its kind in history.
