COOD CONTESTS

IN WRESTLING

TOURNAMENT

The wrestling tournament open to the city held in the Y. M. C. A. gym last night brought out eighteen entrants who were divided into five classes. Peter Murray, of the East End Improvement League, last year's champion, won the 108-pound class event last night when he threw Harold Taylor of the Y. M. C. A. in 6 minutes and 10 seconds.

Seven entrants participated in the 125-pound class contests, which brought out some of the best wrestling of the night. After the eliminations, Preston Jennings, of St. John's, faced Joseph McNeill of the Y. M. C. A. in the final. For 10 minutes and 24 seconds the wrestlers grappled with one another in a lively and closely contested match before Jennings pinned McNeill's shoulders to the mat.

Worden Grey, of the Y. M. C. A., won the 115-pound class from Rupert Mahoney, of the St. George's Athletic Club, in 7 minutes and 30 seconds.

In the 135-pound class Maynard McLennan won from Gordon Logan also of the Y. M. C. A. in 1 minute 48 seconds.

Logan had received a shanking up previously in his bout with Martin of the Y. M. C. A.

Robert Logan, of the Y. M. C. A., won the 145-pound event from George Laskey, unattached, in 5 minutes 22 seconds.

In presenting the medals to the winners of first and second places F. A. Barbour remarked that the tournament had been a successful one. Representatives of the different clubs took part in the meet. Two medal winners who represented outside clubs were members of the Y. M. C. A. as well. Mr. Barbour said, and this was an example of the policy of the Y. M. C. A. in acting as a training centre to develop athletes and promote sport. There had been a decided awakening in both boxing and wrestling in St. John, Mr. Barbour said.

REMARKABLE CASE PUZZLING FRANCE

Footballer Played Greatest

Game of Career With Mortal

Skull Wound.

Paris, March 3.—The case of a rugby footballer, who played the greatest game of his life with a mortal fracture of the base of his skull, is puzzling Paris doctors.

In a match of the championship of France series between the Racing Club of Paris and Saint Gaudens Wing, the three-quarter of the former, named Vigneu, was checked in a flying tackle by two of his adversaries soon after the game began. The three landed in a heap with Vigneu falling underneath on the back of his head. He was carried off the field stunned, but a few minutes later resumed his place, as the rugby game allows no substitutes. Vigneu played brilliantly, contributing materially to the victory of the Racing Club by six points to nothing. He showed no distress, but was noticed feeling the back of his neck from time to time, as if it were stiff. Late the same night he complained of a severe pain at the base of his skull and before dawn was conveyed to a hospital in a state of coma, from which he never was resuscitated, dying the following afternoon. A post-mortem examination revealed the fracture of the skull, with extensive laceration of the brain tissue and physicians are at a loss to understand how it was possible that he rallied from the first
