GENEVA GIRL FINDS BEAUTY A BARRIER TO HONEST WORK

Geneva, Aug. 12—A pretty, accomplished but poor Geneva girl, who wanted to enter English family as governess and also to perfect her English, which she speaks little, found her beauty the greatest hindrance to find work in London, and after seven months' struggle she has just returned here.

The girl knows several languages, is a good musician and painter, and is modest and patient. She obtained several places, but after a few days or weeks in different families she was dismissed, several mistresses frankly stating that she was too pretty to be employed as a governess.

Other ladies, after the first interview, did not communicate with her again.

Finally, she determined to go to America, and in a London hotel met, by appointment, a wealthy American lady who wanted a French governess for her two children.

"My! You are too pretty to work!" said the American lady, and the Swiss girl, disappointed, has returned home, and is now seeking a situation in this country.

WAS PAID.
"The world owes me a living!" shouted the excited theorist.

"Well," replied the serene citizen, "you're alive, aren't you?"—Washington Star.

WILL HOLD SWORN INVESTIGATION INTO POLICE CASE

Announcement of Commissioner McLellan—Hearing Resumed in Police Court This Morning

Almost every available inch of standing and sitting room in the police court was occupied this morning when the case of William White, arrested last week on the charge of drunkenness and violently resisting the police, came up for hearing. The prisoner was represented by counsel, E. S. Ritchie appearing in his behalf. Silas Alward, K. C., was present in the interests of Police Commissioner McLellan, and during the session asked Sergeant Joseph Scott, who was a witness in the case, to produce a copy of the rules and regulations of the local police force. The witness replied that he had not.

The witnesses this morning were Sergeant Scott, George Ogler and newspaper reporter. These three witnesses were called by the prosecution. There were quite a few other witnesses in the case but they were not heard. During the hearing His Honor took occasion to remark that under the British law the most criminal had to be treated with humanity while being arrested, and that also no police officer should be handcuffed to a prisoner unless he was trying to escape from custody. He also suggested to Mr. Alward, who was questioning the case, that he should ask the witness to testify to the fact that he was a policeman, and who offered to call witnesses to testify to the fact that he was a policeman, and who offered to call witnesses to testify to the fact that he was a policeman.

HIS NECK BROKEN, BUT HE CAN STILL WRESTLE

Waldorf, Miller, the young New Rochelle, N. Y., athlete, who broke his neck thirteen months ago while diving, is sure that he is recovering his old form, for he had a wrestling match with his friend, Harry Bardus, and came off victor.

Miller was diving from the neck down, and the inviolable rule of the diving board was suddenly felt, strong and seething. Although Bardus is in full health and strength he could not swim, and Miller's clasp and finally both shoulders were pinned to the bed.

Miller's diving board was broken, but he was still a diver. He was still a diver, and he was still a diver. He was still a diver, and he was still a diver. He was still a diver, and he was still a diver.

NEARING SOLUTION OF THE MYSTERY

New York, Aug. 12—This week promises to unravel much, if not all, the mystery that surrounds the killing of the gambler Herman Rosenthal, who was shot down in front of the hotel Metropole nearly a month ago. With the coming of Sam Scheps from Hot Springs, Ark., and a possible confession from Jack Sullivan, the district attorney's office prepared itself today for new and important evidence that would corroborate the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose, that police lieutenant Becker instigated the murder. Scheps at Hot Springs has already indicated that he may confess everything that he knows of the murder.

THE RED ROSE

That the Red Rose, the famous production of John C. Fisher, will be one of the best musical comedies that has been put on to cut him so badly into the doctor. Crowded houses greeted the company in Halifax, and the press of that city speak in the highest terms of the class of entertainment. There is some speculation as to whether the company will be given an encore reception by St. John the actors.

SUN BATHING IS POPULAR IN BERLIN

Advocated as Cure For Every Disease on Which Sun Shines

A HOLIDAY PASTIME

Fanatical and Conservative School Both Have Their Followers—Solariums in Modern Houses

Berlin, Aug. 7.—With the return of the holiday season Germans, and specially Berlin, take great interest in their health and how it is to be recuperated after the exertions of the past year. Perhaps more than the members of any other nation, they consider the hygienic side of their holiday, with the result that in every German summer resort of importance there are opportunities afforded for all sorts of experiments. Among these is the Sonnenbad, the sun bath, which is apparently growing in popularity, and seems to have an increasing body of medical opinion in its favor. All that is required is the sun, and the sun's rays hitherto have been free and untaxed. It is the simplest and perhaps the most harmless form of light therapeutics.

The bathers must be protected from the wind, and in a position open to the south, they recline on rugs, dry sand, or heather. The head must be protected against the sun's rays, and the position of the body changed every ten minutes or so, in order to avoid too strongly sunning part of the body. A bath ought not in any case to last longer than an hour. The results are profuse perspiration, redness of the skin, and in weak or sensitive persons, dizziness, excitement, and fainting.

Sun baths are especially resorted to in Germany in the cases of certain forms of skin diseases, corns, and a number of kind ailments. Indeed, the fanatics of the sun bath go so far as to declare that there is no disease which the sun, the all-healer, will not cure, or at least favorably modify.

Sun bathing, of course, has been known for centuries. The Romans, for example, used to sit in the strong rays of the sun, and were cured of rheumatism and gout. But it was not until the Swiss, Arnold Rikli, took up the cause that the modern world really turned serious attention to it.

Rikli was a sun fanatic, and there can be no doubt that he exaggerated the effects of sun bathing. Besides, he connected it with a number of other doubtful practices, such as vegetarianism and abstaining from wet grass. It is probable that the famous Lahmann Institution near Dresden has struck the happy mean between the fanatics on the one side and the old conservative school on the other.

In Lahmann's sanatorium the effects of sun and air are scientifically combined, and moderate gymnastics take the place of the resolute listlessness of the ordinary sun bath.

Berlin is probably the city where one can see the sun bath at its greatest popularity. Here there are associations for sun bathing. In the summer these people wander out to common and heath, and enclose a space in which the sun beats. Here they will lie in groups, and other open places, put up a sort of shanty, and return towards evening professing perfect health. In fact, however, the sun bath is a place where the sun is reflected from the water with greater intensity than elsewhere, and where the sun is reflected from the water with greater intensity than elsewhere.

There will be a meeting of the Plumbers' Union this evening in their rooms in the Opera House block.

JOHN T. GRIFFIN.
The death of John Thomas Griffin occurred yesterday at the General Public Hospital. The deceased was formerly in the employ of the I. C. R. and had been ill for about a month. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Fitzpatrick's undertaking parlors in Waterloo street.

SCHOONER DAMAGED.
The three masted schooner Wandrian, which has been loading for New York, fell from her loading berth at Hilary's wharf yesterday morning and is badly damaged. The vessel apparently was not sufficiently canted towards the wharf and when the tide fell off she toppled over. Her hull is badly strained and her mizen mast twisted. The tug Neptune pumped her out and took her to Lavion's wharf. A survey will be held later.

BRIBERY CASE

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 12—In the police court here this morning the case brought by Westmorland Reform League against John L. Wiry, of Sackville, charged with giving $1000 to the Sackville, three dollars on June 19 last as a bribe in the recent provincial election, was heard. The information was laid by Dr. Byron C. Borden, president of the Electoral Reform League, George R. McCord, of Sackville, appeared for prosecution, and J. B. M. Baxter, of St. John, and R. Trites, of Sackville, for the defendant. The only evidence at this morning's session was given by Mr. Gesner Taylor, County Secretary, respecting the voters' lists.
