On True Community Spirit

Real community spirit is a deep feeling, like religion, love for one's family, etc., and inspires one to do things for the community in which he lives.

In a proper community everyone helps everyone else just like in a big brotherhood. This is a state of affairs we would very much like to see in Humboldt, the district in which we live and which we believe in.

In order to prove our good intentions we are offering wonderful values at all times and a lot of real special bargains for Community Week.

Do your part by coming in and seeing our goods — help us to make this a real festival.
