

HARTLAND ADVERTISER

VOL. II.

HARTLAND, N. B., SATURDAY AUGUST 20, 1898.

No. 28

THE fondness some advertisers have of throwing bouquets at themselves is remarkable.

Instead of getting down to business, and telling people what they want to know, they waste their valuable space by pointing the finger of pride at themselves.

"Look at us," they say, "We are the people," "We are honest," "We are so busy, we can't find time to eat." "We lie awake nights studying up nice things for the dear people." "We sold 15 cars goods in 13 days, 5 hours and 17 minutes by the clock; what do you think of that?" "Just stick to us; we are a good thing." "We never deceive anybody!" "We are the truly good." "Our store is a palace; a veritable fairy-land, a paradise of enchantment, and we can prove it. Whoop!"

All of which strongly moves all sensible people to exclaim, "Rats!"

The undersigned simply says:
Call and examine Goods and get prices. If you are doing as well elsewhere, then you are getting a good trade. If not, then buy from us.

J. T. G. CARR,

Agent for Connell Bros., and Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Co.

THE NEW GAOL.

The Work to Go On at Once.

A meeting of the committee on the erection of the new gaol in Woodstock was held on Tuesday, Hon. G. W. White presiding. It was decided to proceed with the work as soon as possible. Councillors White, Henderson, Saunders and Moores were appointed a sub-committee to visit Houlton gaol and get all possible information available from that source, and if necessary to call for plans and specifications for the new building. Henderson, Saunders and Purrington were appointed a sub-finance committee. The gaol is to be built in the rear of the Record office.

It is wonderful the popular protestations against this new gaol question. The council is supposed to represent the people, but if the people voted, the motion for a new gaol at Woodstock would not have been carried.

S. S. CONVENTION.

Annual Meeting at DeBee.

The annual meeting of the Carleton Co. S. S. Convention was held at DeBee on Monday and Tuesday. The first session was held Monday evening. The program consisted of devotional exercises, address of welcome by Rev. Thos. Miller, responded to by Pres. A. H. Hayward; addresses by Rev. W. J. Rutledge, Miss Lucas, and the Provincial S. S. Assoc. Pres., Rev. F. W. Murray of Miltown.

The second session was opened by devotional exercises, and verbal minutes by S. J. Parsons. Appointment of committees; conference on Parish work by Field Sec'y Lucas. Executive and Treasurer's report evoked a lively discussion and the result will likely be seen in better statistical reports being received from Parish officers.

Third session:—Bible reading, adoption of minutes. W. L. Tracey, Normal Supt., gave a very clear and hopeful report. L. A. Young gave an excellent normal lesson on the Temple. The Primary hour was led by Miss Lucas. After a few suitable remarks she introduced Mrs. C. C. Clark who very impressively answered the question "Why should we train very young children." An excellent supplemental lesson was given by Miss Lucas.

Officers elected: Rev. D. Fiske, pres.; C. N. Scott, cor. sec.; Miss Scott, asst.; Jas. Watts, rec. sec. The president elect having been conducted to the platform by Bro. James Forest was cordially welcomed by retiring Pres. Hayward, and duly responded and assumed his duties.

The next meeting will be at Benton, on the third Tuesday in August.

Evening session:—Singing; prayer; minutes. The meeting became largely a temperance one. The audience was much too large for the seating capacity of the house. Mrs. Dickinson and Mrs. Clark ably represented the W. C. T. U.

Their addresses were heartfelt, logical and impressive. A solo "And I shall see Him face to face" by Fred Moore. Geo. Calkin gave a stirring address on the behalf of the W. C. T. U. Rev. H. D. Marr responded. C. L. Smith, M. P. P. also spoke.

Rev. D. Fiske, the returned delegate to the World's S. S. Convention, gave a most interesting description of his trip.

THAT FLAG RAISING.

An Enjoyable Time at Peel.

The day was favorable and therefore there was a good gathering at the Peel flag raising of last Saturday. Mr. Hale who presented the flag, was unable to be present on account of illness, and Mr. Dibblee, who was looked for, found it impossible to attend.

The first on the program was the flag drill by sixteen charming young ladies. This was well carried out to the music of the 67th Band. Immediately at the close of this performance the flag was hoisted to the inspiring strains of "Ru'e Britannia."

J. K. Flemming was the first speaker and his native eloquence was manifest. "The Greatness of the British Empire" being ably handled, and in such a way as to inspire the listening crowd.

The ADVERTISER regrets the impossibility of giving an epitome of the different speeches, which were all good. There were Revds. A. H. Hayward, J. J. Barnes; C. L. Smith, M. P. P.; S. Watts, Capt. J. R. Tompkins, Hon. G. W. White, D. W. Hamilton and A. A. Rideout. The latter's "dog story" and the allusion to the Hartland bridge was well received.

On the programme was a recitation, excellently rendered, by Miss Bessie Ebbitt.

Dainty picnic tables were spread, and the biggest and largest appetite was abundantly satisfied.

The Flag Drill was repeated at the winding up, and was equally well received as at first. Too much praise cannot be spoken for the manner in which this little parade was carried out. J. K. Flemming and E. W. Harmon were the instructors. A recitation by Miss Boyd was well rendered.

With the playing of "God Save the Queen" the crowd dispersed.

The parish meeting of the Prohibition workers held in the Baptist church was fairly well attended. C. J. Connelly, Vice President for Brighton, occupied the chair. Rev. J. B. Daggett was chosen as permanent secretary for the parish. Agents were appointed to represent them to be in attendance at the polling booths on election day. A committee on literature was struck with instructions to make a general distribution of prohibition literature. The secretary was instructed to arrange for a series of public meetings in the parish. Meeting adjourned to meet next Friday night in the Baptist church at 8 o'clock.
