To Blame, Says Mr. Campbell, Crime in Their Children.

tenary church Sunday night, a lesson from the condition of Rivers recently revealed.

Rev. G. M. Campbell preached an admirable sermon, in which he upon the necessity of home for the children if society was to be saved.

It was Deut. vi, 7 and 8. In the he discussed the woe of the Jews had preserved their identity through all their centuries.

Mr. Campbell dwelt upon the value in each child and the value of instruction in moulding his character, and in closing, he gave an account of the work of the young and placed the blame upon the neglect of fathers.

STRIKE CRISIS.

Numerous Conferences Held Yesterday Looking to a Settlement, but So Far Without Any Apparent Result.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Numerous conferences looking to the settlement of the anthracite coal miners' strike were held in this city today, but to-night at 10 o'clock there was no evidence given to the public that any results had been reached.

The conferences are still going on tonight, but the impression prevails that if any basis of settlement is reached it will not be announced until tomorrow, following a meeting to be held at United States Senator Platt's downtown office at 10 o'clock.

The story of the day really centers about the meeting held this afternoon at Mr. Platt's office. Present at this meeting were Governor Odell, Senators Quay and Penrose of Pennsylvania, Senator Platt, President Olyphant of the Delaware and Hudson, President Fowler of the Ontario and Western, President Trustalee of the Lackawanna, Chairman Thomas of the Erie, John Markle, representing the independent operators; David Wilcox, vice-president and general counsel of the Delaware and Hudson; David Lamar and Edward Lauterbach.

At the conclusion of the meeting no present would say what had taken place, or whether any solution to the strike trouble had been reached. This conference followed one held in the forenoon in Senator Platt's office at which were present Senators Quay and Penrose, Gov. Odell, Edward Lauterbach and Senator Platt. The conferences were very reticent as to the subjects under discussion. Gov. Odell afterwards had luncheon at the Odell club with Senators Quay and Penrose.

Following luncheon the three, with Senator Penrose's secretary, returned to Senator Platt's office. They entered by means of the cellar and the Church street entrance, threading their way through a mass of boxes and bales of merchandise. At 3 o'clock they were joined by the operators of the coal mines and the most important conference of the day was held. Mr. Lauterbach went back and forth from the office and made a trip to Mr. Morgan and went back to the conference room. Mr. Lauterbach replied to questions by saying that appearances looked very hopeful for a speedy settlement. He said he had seen President John Mitchell Wednesday night and that he seemed disposed to act with a spirit of fairness. The conference ended about 4.30 o'clock.

President Fowler was first to leave, the other operators following him. The coal ministers referred all inquirers to the senators and Gov. Odell.

"I've nothing to say. There's nothing to be said," was Governor Odell's answer to a question. Senator Quay likewise had nothing to say. Senator Platt was the last to leave his office.

"I don't think I can say anything," he said. "I'm too tired. There will be further meetings tomorrow. That is all I can say at present."

Although President Mitchell apparently had no part in the conference between the senators and the operators, his actions were anxiously awaited. Early in the day he was joined at the Ashland House by ex-Senator Moses W. Salomon of Chicago.

President Mitchell had this to say: "Unless the demands of the strikers are granted in full, I do not see how the president can settle the strike without calling a convention. If only a part of the demands are granted, that would render it necessary to call a convention, and that would take two weeks at least."

A GOOD START.

St. John's Big Carnival Opened Auspiciously Wednesday.

Most Exciting Yacht Race Seen in St. John for Years.

The fall carnival opened Wednesday under most favorable circumstances. The morning opened dreary and wet, but by one o'clock the weather was clear and a slight breeze made splendid conditions for the opening feature, the big yacht race.

The yacht race yesterday afternoon on the outside harbor course was the most exciting seen for many years. The wind was west by north, and a very stiff breeze prevailed throughout the contest. The course was from a buoy off Reed's Point to a buoy off Anheuser's Head, and thence back to the starting point, a distance of some 12 miles.
