

DR. SAUNDERS Talks of the Agony Which Followed Rev. Mr. Waring's Sermon

Some Groaned, Others Wondered and All Hearts Ached, According to the Doctor.

Rev. Mr. Waring has finished his sermon on the Messianic and Victor in reply to Dr. E. M. Saunders' epistles, from which a few extracts were recently made by the Sun. Dr. Saunders has the floor. While he does not say Mr. Waring that no one has ever driven him so frequently to his closet to pray for grace and patience as the other party to the controversy, he is still not satisfied with Mr. Waring's orthodox. Dr. Saunders makes the following reference to Mr. Waring's sermon on the Messianic and Victor in St. John, to his present attitude in regard to the inspiration of the scriptures, and to his pastorate in Halifax.

When came the hour of agony in the denunciation, and what an hour it was. Never anything like it before in the history of the convention. Heads went down, ministers left the house, and young ones wondered, others groaned. All hearts ached because the customary vote of thanks could not be passed by the convention.

WHO IS MANZER? He is Much Talked of in East Somerville.

OTTAWA, May 27.—Mr. Emmerson, in his speech this morning answering the criticism that he had been inconsistent, pointed out that while in the railway committee he had advocated the extension of the Intercolonial to the west, he had submitted an alternative proposition—a government constructed and owned, but co-operated line, to the wheat fields, and when the government's policy was subsequently announced it agreed with his alternative proposition.

Under the latter name he will be assessed this year from 48 Grant street, where about a month ago, he established a new home in an apartment house. Over the speaking tube, which is connected with his apartment, he has had a most pleasant voyage, and in the 72 days that the party were away from New York they managed to visit a large number of very interesting places.

It will be remembered that the object of the voyage was to attend the fifth world's Sunday school convention, held at Jerusalem on April 17, 18 and 19. A party consisting of 701 American and 52 Canadian delegates met at New York, together with a few others who intended taking the same tour, bringing the number to a little over 800.

After an experience of a year and a half, Mr. Lunn and his housekeeper dissolved partnership. The latter is said, his wife and two children, since leaving Mr. Lunn and Somerville she has made her home in the vicinity of a popular resort near Boston, where she has prospered as proprietor of a business. There she is known as "Mrs. Jennie Lunn," and is well informed as they understand that the woman left a husband, three children and a charming home in order that she might keep house for Mr. Lunn in Somerville.

Now, Charles H. Manzer, alias Charles H. Lunn, is living with his wife and daughter in a newly furnished home on Grand street. All that Mr. Manzer consents to say is: "I don't consider it anybody's business what my own I acted upon the advice of Judge Wentworth, and all my intimate friends and business associates know all about the circumstances, and think that I have done the right thing."

St. John Lady Returns After a Pleasant Trip to the Holy Land.

Miss Laura McLaughlin returned to the city yesterday from New York, where she had been spending a few days after her trip to the Holy Land and other places of interest on the Mediterranean. She said last night that it was a most pleasant voyage, and in the 72 days that the party were away from New York they managed to visit a large number of very interesting places.

THE POLITICAL PIMP.

Rev. B. O'Neill Makes a Strong Plea for Pure Elections.

In a recent article in these columns the bribe-taker was termed the male counterpart of the female prostitute, the vote-seller denounced as being equally disreputable with the commonest strumpet. This characterization can scarcely be deemed extravagant; for any thoughtful man must on reflection perceive that, just as chastity is the very citadel of the whole moral being of a woman, its overthrow meaning for her the overthrow of all, so his unpurchasability is the key-stone in the arch of a man's probity and honor, the withdrawal of the stone resulting in the collapse and fall of his integrity and manliness.

Now, if the vote-seller, the venal actor, may justly be called a political harlot, what term can so appropriately qualify the vote-buyer, the briber, as political pimp. Viewed in the unclouded atmosphere of same morality, this is his criminal and disgraceful office comparable if not to the shameless function of the male bawd, the unspeakable pandar and procurer who caters to the lusts of the depraved. Alas! what specious pretence he may for his wrong-doing, urge strongly as he will the relentlessness of the

SEAMEN BURIED.

Bodies of Those Who Died on the Turret Bay Interred on St. Paul's Island.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 27.—The government steamer Tyrant arrived at the wharf in Sydney today from St. Paul's Island, bringing up the nine survivors of the ill-fated steamer Turret Bay, that struck on Paddy's Rock on that island Thursday morning, and last from 20 to 30 minutes later sank to the bottom in forty fathoms of water, carrying with her Capt. Hayden and several of the officers and crew. The survivors tell a thrilling story of the loss of the steamer and fourteen of her crew. The five bodies recovered were buried Sunday on St. Paul's Island on a high bluff overlooking the scene of the wreck. They were laid to rest on one grave side by side, and a cross bearing the names of the victims erected to mark the resting place of the seamen who had perished in one of the worst marine disasters that has ever occurred in the St. Lawrence.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. A Pitiabie Sight to See How These Little Girls Suffered—It Seemed Impossible to Relieve Them Until Dr. Chase's Ointment Was Used—A Perfect Cure. Young children seem especially liable to eczema. Not only is the suffering from the itching, burning skin intense, but there is always the danger of eczema becoming chronic, spreading over the entire body and lasting for years. There has never yet been discovered a preparation which is anything like as successful as Dr. Chase's Ointment in the cure of eczema. There are thousands of cases on record to prove this statement. Bathe the parts with tepid water and castile soap and apply Dr. Chase's Ointment night and morning, and the soothing, healing influence of this Ointment will bring relief quickly and soon make a thorough cure, leaving the skin soft, smooth and natural. MRS. E. ST. AMOUR, 293 Richelieu St., St. Onsgonde, Quebec, writes: "For fifteen months I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for my two little girls, Angeline and Antoinette, who suffered dreadfully with eczema. Their hands were all covered with itching sores, and though we tried all sorts of salves and lotions it seemed impossible to get a cure. Then we heard of Dr. Chase's Ointment and began to use it. As the result of this treatment my two little girls were completely cured, and are happy to be free from this terrible ailment which caused them to cry all the time. I do not believe there is a better Ointment than Dr. Chase's, for I have seen it tested in this case of my children. It was a pitiabie sight to see how they suffered, and the cure is perfect."
