Social and Personal.

St. John—South End.

There is no doubt that the arrival of a man-of-war in port does much to enliven our people, making the city gay, giving an incentive to our society people, to give entertainments etc., however short their stay may be amongst us.

H. M. S. "Blake" steamed into the harbor on Saturday last and brought crowds of citizens to the wharves to see the largest man-of-war that has ever visited St. John. Almost immediately after she had cast anchor a party of citizens boarded the pretty little steamer "Dream" and steamed out to the ship. They were cordially received by Admiral Hopkins and officers.

On Monday afternoon Sir Leonard Tilley accompanied by Lt. Col. Armstrong A. D. C. visited the Blake and was received by a governor's salute. On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith entertained the Admiral and officers at an afternoon reception at their residence Union street, when most of St. John's prominent society ladies and gentlemen were present and were presented to Admiral Hopkins. Refreshments of all kinds were dispensed during the afternoon and the Artillery band stationed in the lawn adjoining Mr. Smith's residence, gave several selections during the entertainment. The party broke up at 6.30 o'clock after spending a most enjoyable afternoon.

On Monday evening, Admiral Hopkins gave a dinner on board the "Blake," cards of invitation for which were issued on Saturday. Among the invited guests were Sheriff Sturges, Mayor Peters, Archdeacon Brigstocke, Recorder Jack, Judge Palmer, Mr. Robertson, President of the Board of Trade and others.

By invitation of Admiral Hopkins, a number of ladies went on board at half past ten o'clock on Tuesday morning. The ship's boats were in attendance and the Admiral and officers were on the ship. The officers did all in their power towards entertaining the party, showing them over the ship, etc. Light refreshments were served and a few ladies and gentlemen remained to luncheon.

The Blake left for St. John on Wednesday morning. The officers that were on the ship were not longer with us. The officers that were on the ship were not longer with us.

Miss Emily McDonald, Fredericton, is the guest of Mrs. G. Ludlow Robinson, Rockland Road. Mrs. Robinson gave a little dance for her honor on Wednesday evening, when a number of young people were present.

The death occurred on Tuesday last of Mr. Frederick J. Pullen son of Mr. James H. Pullen of this city. Mr. Pullen has been ill for some time, but for two years, but during this summer was considered better until about two weeks ago he became worse. Much sympathy is felt for his family in the death of one so young, he being only 28 years old. The funeral took place on Thursday at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. E. J. Smith, 380 St. John street.

Mr. Lawson has returned home from a visit to Halifax. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Travis gave a very pleasant little dance at her residence, King square, several of the officers of the H. M. S. Blake being present.
