GLASSY BOX WORK WON SERIES FOR N. Y. GIANTS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Those who are now trying to figure out inside causes and explanations for the Giants' last apart forward, which has carried them to excess, will find the answer an easy one if they care to dig beneath the surface of the game.

Undoubtedly the flag carrier of the Giants centered around their pitching mainstay. Others have done effective work—Crandall for example, by his many relief voyages; Merkle, by his wonderful play at first base; Myers, by his good catching and mighty batting; Devore, Snodgrass, Murray, Doyle, Herzog and Fletcher, by their speed and support; Ames and Wittke, by winning at opportune times—but through it all Marquard and Mathewson have been the storm-center of the Giant play.

THE COUNCIL SESSION MAY BE INTERESTING

Report of Board of Works May Provoke Lively Discussion this Afternoon—Possible Revival of Patronage System.

The Common Council will meet this afternoon, and it is expected there will be an interesting debate over a section of the report of the Board of Public Works, recommending that the city engineer be requested to reinstate Mr. Kirkpatrick to the position of watchman at Sand Point.

When the matter came before the Board of Works there was an angry wrangle, and the chairman declared that if the motion to reinstate Mr. Kirkpatrick was adopted he would move in Council to demand a vote of censure upon the engineer without an investigation.

Some of the older members of the Council say there is a standing order of the council vesting the appointment of subordinate officers in the heads of departments, and that it is probable that the Mayor will rule the section out of order, on the ground that the matter can not be dealt with until the council has reconsidered and rescinded its former order to heads of departments. It is claimed that the action of the younger members of the council who forced the resolution to reinstate Mr. Kirkpatrick through the Board of Works, against the protest of the engineer, was subversive of discipline. It is admitted that they had a right to demand an investigation of the action of the engineer in laying off Mr. Kirkpatrick but that it was contrary to good civic practice to pass what constituted a vote of censure upon the engineer without an investigation.

There is a feeling in some circles that the newer members of the council are moving to revive the old system under which aldermen were able to dispose of subordinate officers without much reference to the wishes of the heads of departments. "We had plenty of trouble in those days," said Ald. McGoldrick, "and if we are going to interfere with the engineer in the selection of his subordinates, we might as well revive the old system at once, and give the new aldermen a chance to see how it works. In a short time they will be glad to return to the present system."

The same aldermen who want to interfere with the engineer in the discharge of his duties, have also been complaining that the Superintendent of the Ferry Service, has presumed to have work done without the special authorization of all members of the Ferry Committee. "The attitude of some of the aldermen is rather peculiar," said one of the older members of the council to the Standard.

"Apparently, they think that every time the superintendent wants some small pieces of machinery, absolutely necessary, he should tie up the ferry service, and get his chairman to call a meeting of the committee to explain why he needs it."

"These aldermen do not take the trouble to inspect the services they are supposed to supervise, and they waste the time of the Boards, asking questions that they might put to heads of departments privately."

Ald. Hayes will present a resolution to rescind the resolution made by him on Sept. 6th, for the issue of debentures to the amount of $12,000, it having been ascertained that there was one day lacking of the thirty days required after first giving the notice of motion, and he will also move a resolution to authorize the issue of debentures for the sum of $24,000 of which he gave notice on Aug. 7th.

Ald. McGoldrick will move that a portion of Carleton street be discontinued in accordance with a notice of motion given on Aug. 7th. A petition signed by Robert Reford and others, will be presented asking that the I. C. R. be given permission to extend its tracks in the rear of the city warehouses on Water street.

A communication will be received from Weldon & McLean, complaining of the action of the Harbor Master in moving the British steamer Anora while loading at the Long wharf.

Mrs. Julia A. McMann has an application for a renewal lease of lot No. 496, Brooks ward, and John Lindsay an application to have the water placed in his house at the corner of Bridge street near the Spar row road. A communication will be received from J. J. McGaffigan, complaining of the bad state of the west side of Dock street, which is blocked with paving stones.

J. E. Swindell, winner of 30 out of 35 games for the Winston Salem team of the Carolina league, has joined the Naps.
